

Needlework Guild. The Omaha branch of the Needlework Guild has set aside Thursday and Friday, November 8 and 9, for gathering and distributing the articles collected by its members.

The Scottish Rite cathedral at Twentieth and Douglas streets is the place of meeting this year. The business meeting will take place on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Tea will be served on Friday afternoon and the public is most cordially invited to inspect the collection which is to collect annually a central stock to meet the great need of hospitals, homes and other charities.

The Needlework Guild of America is the only national organization in the world the specific duty of which is to collect annually a central stock to meet the great need of hospitals, homes and other charities.

The plan of work is very simple, membership consisting of an annual contribution of two or more new articles of wearing apparel or household linen.

The officers of the Omaha branch are: Honorary president, Mrs. W. G. Templeton; president, Mrs. W. W. Carmichael; vice president, Mrs. Charles R. Sherman; secretary, Miss Elsie Goetz.

Jet jewelry is deservedly popular this season because of the distinction it imparts to any costume. Earrings, necklaces, bracelets, & etc., can all be had in this fascinating costume jewelry.
