"If it was any good you wouldn't sell it to me"

SOME FOLKS make this remark when we speak to them about investing in Nebraska Power Company stock. But think a moment. Our stock is being sold to our CUSTOMERS and other LOCAL people. The success of our business depends upon them—upon their good will and patronage.

Now wouldn't it be the very height of folly for us to sell them anything in which we did not have the utmost confidence or which was not the very finest in our power to create?

Nebraska Power Company is not some new concern just starting up. It is a firmly established company whose business is growing rapidly.

Its stock is not a risky speculation or get-rich-quick scheme. It is a SAFE, DEPENDABLE INVESTMENT. It is not an uncertainty; not a mere possibility. You'll have no waiting for mines to be dug or wells drilled or factories built before you begin to get dividends. Nebraska Power Company is paying dividends on its stock every 3 months and has been paying them every 3 months without a break ever since the first shares were issued six years ago.
