

Let's Go Shopping with Polly

I'm tired of long-stemmed roses
I've done with chocolate creams,
My feet are weary with the dance,
I'm growing sick of dreams.

Not carnivals and matinees,
Not dinners set for eight,
Not frosty rides in crowded sleighs
With jingle bells clate.

Not white kid gloves and violets,
Not operatic airs,

Nor one of these things besets
And breaks into my prayers.

Reality I long to know
All night I heard as mine—
Curtains to drape and cut and sew,
Silver to rub and shine.

When Grandma smells my roses
And tastes my chocolate creams,
Her dim eyes tell me with a glance
She envies me my dreams.

Youth—By Marie Louise Hersey.

Style Notes From Exclusive Shop Strike Upon Russian Tendencies the Beltless Gown Boleros and Lavish Fur Trims

LA BOSCHIN, Hotel Fontenelle, Eighteenth and Douglas, brings to our minds the salient style features of the new season: Russian tendencies best illustrated in the new, daring tunics; the beltless gowns which depend upon hip shirtings for their fullness, leaving the back of the dress severely plain, this seen in a rosewood charmer frock with French batiste frills edged in blue at collar and cuffs, a corresponding color in unique buttons corded to close; a bolero frock has combination of calico and pique in its chic long wide collar and gauntlet cuffs; fur trims on frocks of silk or wool, furs of every color and kind. "This includes an education in modish stylings to view the La Boschin models—a marvelous grouping of fashions."

A Shop to Visit Before the Holidays. To him is due the beautiful decorations at the last University club party. If interested in having an authoritatively wrought crest for your stationery, Mr. Gearish; if desirous of the latest version of the Kalogram, again, Mr. Gearish. A person of versatile accomplishments.

Deep red roses were rarely beautiful combined with whiggly little button "mums" in a massed low bowl. ## Authority on Skin Conditions Advises Facials for Individual Needs With Home Treatments of Creme and Oil

MR. Roberts of the Black and White Room at Burgess-Nash, is an authority on the skin, its care and its needs. He will diagnose your skin condition giving you face, neck, arms and hands the treatment they require, recommending the necessary care to be rendered at home with the prescribed cremes and oils which Mr. Roberts personally imports for the use of his shop. For use at night to improve the muscle condition of the face, there's a wonderfully effective "Muscle Oil." Delicately scented, it evaporates, leaving the face soft and clean so that it can not even be detected by "Friend Husband" himself, even if he is one of those who particularly loathe all cremes. Another imported product are indelible lipsticks and eye brow pencils, which won't rub except by washing, preparations from famous foreign makers. Let's be beautiful!

Shoe Models for Winter Demonstrate That at Last the Discovery of Smart Style Combined With Comfort Has Been Made

THOMPSON-BELDEN'S shoe department has just received a decidedly smart new shoe model which demonstrates to our entire satisfaction that the designers can make a shoe smart and at the same time make it comfortable. This a model with a modified rounded toe, two thin narrow straps which cross to button on either side. A cut out design at the sides though new as open cut summer models very closely resembles them. In Log Cabin suede with kid trim, $13; in black kid beautifully finished, $12. A discovery!

Personal Service Watchword of New Beauty Shop. A FEW many years of experience in the beauty work Jeanette Bain of the Bain Beauty Shop, Main floor of the Morris Apartments, Eighteenth and Dodge, AT. 1617, decided to feature "Personal Service" in her own shop. Decidedly delightful too is this service when experienced. Try it!

Nothing could be smarter than the utter simplicity of Cheruti's tubular frock of putty-colored wool with its jacket at the new gassle fur. More often than not, these straight tubes are relieved from monotony by a circular flounce or a plating at the bottom. This style, many believe, leads to the director.
