

London Still Has Hope for Debt Inquiry

Britain Will Continue Efforts to Reach Basis for Meeting—Washington Holds Off.

By Associated Press. London, Nov. 10.—Although the press reports from Washington regarding the prospect of a reparations inquiry conducted within a limited scope of the French proposal are by no means sanguine, British official circles in London do not consider the time has yet arrived to abandon hopes of an allied conference including America.

In competent quarters it is asserted that Great Britain will continue to apply herself to the problem of reaching a basis on which a conference satisfactory to the United States can be held until every possible avenue is explored.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Restrictions insisted upon by France on the proposed inquiry by experts into Germany's economic condition would render such an effort to solve the reparations problem useless and futile, in the opinion of the Washington government.

This decision was reached yesterday after the situation had been discussed during the day by President Coolidge and his cabinet and ambassador Jusserand at a conference with Secretary Hughes has explained in detail the nature of the French limitations.

The result was that word was sent to Premier Poincare, through the ambassador, that his determination to restrict the scope of the inquiry, administration officials here believed would frustrate the object of the United States in offering the allies aid in bringing about an adjustment.

What the future might bring forth, officials here declined to predict. No formal invitation to participate in a reparations inquiry it was pointed out is before the Washington government and consequently a declaration is not in order. While under the circumstances no invitation from the allies is now expected it was plainly indicated that such an invitation, if France continued to insist upon restrictions would be declined.

Paris, Nov. 10.—The presentation of Great Britain's bill for her war advances to the French government is foreseen by political observers as one of the probable early results of the apparent collapse of the plan for an expert committee to examine Germany's capacity to pay reparations. It is understood Premier Poincare expects it to be one of the developments.

The reparations commission which will meet next Tuesday, will have to decide the question whether the Germans shall be heard, according to their request, as to the capacity of Germany to pay. It is understood there will be no opposition by the French.

Family Reunion for Stage Stars

Omaha Relatives Plan Parties for Headliners on Next Bill at Orpheum.

Hale Hamilton and his wife, Grace La Rue, who will be headliners at the Orpheum theater this week, arrived in Omaha Saturday evening to be met by a family delegation. Mrs. S. H. Cook of the Colonial apartments is an aunt of Hale Hamilton. His sister, Mrs. J. D. Hamilton of Topeka, Kan., mother of Mr. Hamilton, will also arrive this evening. Many informal parties are planned.

Mr. Hamilton's father was widely known in Omaha. He was attorney here for the Santa Fe railroad for years. The son started in a law course but later turned to the stage.

Mr. Hamilton and Miss La Rue appeared in Omaha last in September, 1920, when they co-starred in the musical comedy "Dear Me." Miss La Rue has since starred in Irving Berlin's "Music Box Revue." Mr. Hamilton played a leading role in "Get Rich Quick Wallingford."

The two stars appear together on the Orpheum bill as Mr. and Mrs. Hale Hamilton in playlet "Dangerous Advice," and in addition, Miss La Rue gives a song recital.

Another Charity Joins Civic Chest

The Child Saving Institute has joined the community chest, it was announced Saturday morning, making the 30th organization participating in the $204,000 fund to be raised between November 19 and November 26.

The Child Saving Institute is one of Omaha's oldest philanthropic organizations, the work of which is centered in the care of homeless or orphaned infants. The board of directors is composed of prominent Omaha citizens.

Betty Compton to Wed Film Producer

Betty Compton.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 10.—James Cruze, motion picture producer and director, and Betty Compton, film star, are engaged and will be married some time next year. They admitted their engagement to a newspaper man here last night. Cruze's first wife was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce about a month ago and he will be free to remarry in about eleven months.

Nebraska Sound, Pioneer Declares

J. H. Hanson of Fremont Reviews Situation—Eat Wheat Campaign Launched.

"Don't worry about Nebraska; the farmers are abundantly able to take care of themselves," was the advice of J. H. Hanson, a pioneer farm loan man of Fremont, before the agricultural committee of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce Friday.

"Half of Nebraska doesn't raise wheat," he continued, "and the half that does, with the exception of a few counties, raises it as a part of diversified farming, not as the main crop."

All over the state, he said, farmers are swinging to diversification. Summer following, by which a part of each farm is allowed to rest unplanted each year, is also found to increase profits. The comparatively few landowners who plant 2,000 acres of wheat, and having plunged, go to California for the winter, are of a passing race, he declared.

Home Market for Wheat. Grosvenor Dave, secretary of the national wheat council, followed Mr. Hansen. He told of organizing an "eat more wheat committee" in Omaha, designed to increase the demand for wheat products and thus improve the prices paid grain farmers. Dairy companies will place the suggestion of toast on the menu of their milk bottles, and gas bills and electricity bills also should carry the injunction, he said.

"If every person in America would eat two additional ounces of bread at each meal for a year, it would consume 100,000,000 additional bushels of wheat," he estimated. "It is raised to be eaten—let's eat it," he said.

He explained that it was utterly uncalculated for to attempt to raise wheat in some localities, where the cost of production ranges as high as $2 a bushel. His suggestions were to turn to some other more paying crop in these instances, to reduce less on exporting wheat, and to develop the home market.

"We must abandon the idea that the salvation of the American farmer lies in the foreign market," he concluded. "The remedy for low prices lies right here at home."

At a meeting in the city hall Friday, P. F. Petersen was elected chairman of the eat more wheat movement, and James A. Austin, secretary.

Scouts Get Lift to Lincoln Game

Omaha Youths Usher and Assist Brothers at Capitol City.

Generous Omahans made 31 small boys happy Saturday by giving Omaha Boy Scouts a lift in their automobiles going to Lincoln for the Nebraska-Notre Dame football game.

The boys were selected as the last 31 who had offered their services to the Scout headquarters in the past few months, according to Gilbert Gendall, scout executive. They were the guests of Lincoln Boy Scouts today as reward for their services.

They acted as ushers at the football game and helped in traffic congestion of visiting automobiles on the streets of Lincoln.

100 Men Seek Work; But Not Husking

Ben Short, superintendent of the municipal free employment bureau in the city hall, has made another request for corn pickers to respond to calls from farms near Omaha.

The superintendent said he would be pleased to hear from Omahans who have odd jobs for those who apply for work at the bureau. Some applicants are willing to work for a day or half day at a time.

Armistice Day

Once upon a time a "great thinking soul," who wrote for the children as well as for the grown folks, said: "Uplifting thoughts are God's forget-me-nots abloom in my heart." Armistice Day brings an endless train of uplifting thoughts—thoughts of fidelity, of love, of gratitude; thoughts of compassion for fallen foe, thoughts of constructive efforts for the rebuilding of a stricken world. Wouldn't it be great if on this fine day all the friends and foes in all the wide, wide world could learn that "every gate you bar to hate will open wide to love!" Wouldn't our eyes open upon a wonderful world of beauty and of light, if on some Armistice Day we awakened to find these forget-me-nots of a loving God abloom in the hearts of men?
