Tribute Is Prominent Wholesaler Who Died Yesterday Paid Dead by Coolidge

Wreath Is Laid on Tomb of Unknown Soldier to Memory of Those Who Died That End Might Come.

Rosebud From Women

Washington, Nov. 11 .- President Coolidge laid a wreath today on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington as the Armistice day tribute of the American people to the memory of "those who did not see, but died that the end might come." The act of tribute to the dead of the world was performed by the chief exutive with little ceremony and in strict accord with the custom established a year ago by President Hard-
