

"Tiger Girl" Leads 25 Women in Riot

Attempt to Escape From Chicago Detention Home Frustrated—Men Sought.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Twenty-five girls in the juvenile detention home were under heavy guard today, following their attempt during a riot in the night to escape with knotted sheets while four men in a motor car circled again and again outside the building. The men drove away when the uprising was squelched.

The rebellion was led by Anna Baranowski, "Tiger girl," seized recently with a band of holdup men. It began when the girls pounced upon a matron making her rounds and trussed her to a chair.

The rebels had 15 sheets united into a rope that was to be dropped four stories to the ground.

The girls were clustered about a window opening when Angus Frew, the superintendent, chanced upon them. He called reinforcements, who subdued the 25 and restored order.

Police are searching for the four men observed outside in the automobile on the supposition they were former companions of the "Tiger girl."

Former Congressman Sloan Gives Address at Geneva

Geneva, Neb., Nov. 14.—Former Congressman Charles H. Sloan was the principal speaker at the dinner of the Community club here. Mr. Sloan made an interesting address on his recent trip to Germany, Czechoslovakia and Austria. He stated that in none of the countries in continental Europe he visited, except one, was credit given America for defeating Germany in the war. This was in the territory of Germany itself.

Senator Charles Smith of Milligan was a guest at the dinner and followed Mr. Sloan with a brief address.

Egg and Poultry Market Association Is Formed

Lincoln, Nov. 14.—C. B. Steward, secretary of the Nebraska Farm Bureau federation, has appointed the following to serve as a committee to formulate plans for a co-operative egg and poultry marketing association: Mrs. R. V. Graff of Bancroft, Mrs. J. J. Donohue of Inland, Albert Simmons of Cozad, Dan Sheehan of Emerson and John Glaum of Alexandria.

A definite date for the meeting of the committee has not been set, Mr. Steward said, but he anticipates it will be in the near future.

West Point Community Club Elects Directors

West Point, Neb., Nov. 14.—The West Point Community club held its regular meeting, at which time three directors were elected for a term of three years. Rev. M. Ruesing was re-elected and P. D. Sharrar, manager of the Farmers Co-operative company, and Dr. G. J. Collins, veterinary, were the new directors elected. Arrangements were made with the Travers chautauqua system of Des Moines, Ia., for a chautauqua at West Point next summer.

Sunday School Class Hears Radio Sermons

Plainview, Neb., Nov. 14.—Mrs. J. R. Miller, teacher of the Busy Bees class of the Stark Valley Methodist Sunday school, does not despair of the present-day attractions which call the boys and girls away from the higher things of life, but rather believes in using the things which modern science and a new age have brought as a means to convey the higher things to their minds. In connection with her teaching she invites the class to her home on Sundays to listen to a sermon over the radio, usually given by an Omaha minister.

Albion Woman's Club Works for Red Cross Campaign

Albion, Neb., Nov. 14.—The Red Cross campaign for membership is being carried on here by the Woman's club. They are making a house-to-house canvass and are meeting with good success. Boone county had a Red Cross county nurse for three years, but the interest lagged throughout the rural districts and it was found impracticable to continue the service.

Pawnee County Herefords Top Kansas City Market

Table Rock, Neb., Nov. 14.—The highest price paid this year on the Kansas City cattle market for mixed yearlings went to C. M. Clark of Burchard. Mr. Clark sold eight steers and heifers, mixed, at $12.25 per 100. They were Herefords of his own breeding and feeding and scaled an average of 898 pounds over the boards at the Kansas City stockyards. In addition to topping the day and for the year in their class, the cattle sold at the highest price paid for cattle of any weight at Kansas City in over a month.

Former Nebraska Man Dies in California

Shelton, Neb., Nov. 14.—A message has been received here by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Light informing them of the death of their son, John J. Light, a former well-known Shelton man, which occurred at San Diego, Cal. Mr. Light was a former Nebraska traveling man and had a large acquaintance in this state. Before going to San Diego he was located at Eugene, Ore., for many years. No particulars were received regarding his death. He is survived by a wife and one daughter, the latter living at Eugene.

Closed Bank at Neligh May Resume Business

Lincoln, Nov. 14.—Negotiations looking to the reopening of the Atlas State bank at Neligh, closed yesterday, were in progress this afternoon at a conference between Chairman K. C. Knudson and Secretary Van E. Peterson, of the guaranty fund commission and Raw Swanson, at one time vice president of the bank.

At one time announcement was made that arrangements had been completed whereby the bank would resume tomorrow, but Chairman Knudson later said this announcement was premature. It was said a plan for reopening has practically been completed, but on advice of Attorney General Spillman a decision was delayed in order that the district court of Antelope county may approve and confirm it.

Doane College Minister Will Go to Hartington

Hartington, Neb., Nov. 14.—Rev. Louis Hieb, who for several years has been field secretary for Doane college, Crete, Neb., has accepted a call to the First Congregational church here and will begin his pastorate immediately. The church here has been without a pastor since the death of Rev. E. A. Willard, which occurred suddenly on Decoration day, after four years of a successful pastorate.

Bread Now Selling for 10 Cents a Loaf at Kearney

Kearney, Neb., Nov. 14.—Bread prices in Kearney have been stabilized, following a price-cutting war, during which a 24-ounce loaf sold for 11.2 cents. This price virtually closed the local market to out-of-town bread and threatened to close some of the bakeries. A settlement was finally reached which provides 10 cents for the 24-ounce loaf and 11 cents for outside trade. This applies only to retail business.
