

OMAHA BEE SPORTS ARE BEST

Central Lads in Light Workout Preparatory to City Championship Battle With Tech High Saturday

Purple Will Be Outweighed Fourteen Pounds to Man— Four Years Have Elapsed Since Central Won From Commercial Lads.

OACH Schmidt's capital hill warriors have been taking very light practice the last two nights in preparation for their annual battle with Tech Saturday at Creighton field. The same spots obtained in the Lincoln game last week are being gradually worked out.

Every member of the Purple squad, except Captain Blue Howell, emerged from the Links fray last Saturday in good shape. Howell fractured a rib in the game but he expects to play against the Purple's ancient rivals even though he will be considered "handicapped." A "cake eating" team are perfecting an aerial attack to spring on the Techsters that will surprise them. The Tech team were unable to gain any knowledge of Central's attack, except straight football, against the Red and Black warriors last week as the Omaha eleven had no cause to open up their aerial attack.

Tech Will Outweigh Central

Coach Drummond will outweigh Schmidt's men about 14 pounds to the man. Central will win the are keeping up the fighting spirit all the time.

A few changes may be made in the Central line near the center as this is their weakest point. May, left guard, has been shifted to the pivot position and Leipecker is filling the place left vacant.

A hard scrimmage today and tomorrow will put the Dodge street lads in the pink of condition for the battle Saturday. Old man dope is to be true for once, according to the capital hill men.

Lavalle Charges Cops Threatened Him at Big Bout

Firpo's Chief Second Claims He Was Forcibly Prevented From Entering Ring

Buenos Aires, Nov. 20.—Defending himself for his failure to protest the alleged violations of the rules governing the contest by Jack Dempsey during Dempsey's recent fight with Luis Angel Firpo at the Polo grounds in New York, Horatio Lavalle, Firpo's chief second, in a statement printed by La Nación today, declares that during the first round he attempted to enter the ring to lodge a protest, but that he was forcibly prevented from going so by two members of the boxing commission, "who threatened me with the police if I made any protest during the match."

"After the struggle with them, I was obliged to step down," the statement advised.

Lavalle explained that while in the United States he never publicly answered the charges that he had been delinquent, because of "the laws existing in the United States which provide severe punishments for any protest against the interests of any enterprise."

Fort Madison Wins Title

Fort Madison, Ia., Nov. 21.—The Fort Madison high school football team, coached by Holly Helmbrecht, is the winner of the championship of the Mississippi Valley High School conference gridiron title this season. The Mississippi valley title includes a number of high school teams in Iowa, northeastern Missouri and western Illinois.

Coach Holly (Baron) Helmbrecht was formerly a star member of the Des Moines university football team, and is coaching for his first year.

Army Star to Play in Game

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Reports that George Smythe, star quarterback, would be unable to play against the Navy on Saturday, were given the lie today when it was said, semi-officially, that he will run the team through its paces either in the practice today or the final workout here tomorrow. Smythe was injured two weeks ago and has done little else but jog around the field this week.

Harvard in Speed Practice

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 21.—A workout for speed will be attempted by the Harvard varsity this afternoon in one of its final practices for the Yale game Saturday. The dash and variety in the attack is claimed to be needed most at this moment, but because he seems to get more drive out of the eleven, it is reported that Lee will start the game at quarterback instead of McGloins.

Boosters Win at Glenwood

Glenwood, Ia., Nov. 21.—In one of the best games played here this season, the West Side Boosters of Omaha, defeated the Glenwood (Ia.) team football, 3 to 0.

Glenwood will play a return game at Omaha, Sunday, November 25, at the Thirty-sixth and Q streets grounds.

Start Qualifying Round

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—Qualifying rounds for the Rancho Invitational tournament start today with an entry list of around 200. Qualifying will continue tomorrow with match play scheduled to open Friday.

Former Giant to Manage Braves

Dave Bancroft, field captain of the New York Giants, had been traded to the Boston Braves and will assume the management of that club the coming season. Bancroft joined the Giants during the season of 1920, McGraw having obtained him from the Phillies. He is considered one of the best shortstops in the game and should prove a great help to his new teammates.

Start Qualifying Round

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—Qualifying rounds for the Rancho Invitational tournament start today with an entry list of around 200. Qualifying will continue tomorrow with match play scheduled to open Friday.

Start Qualifying Round

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—Qualifying rounds for the Rancho Invitational tournament start today with an entry list of around 200. Qualifying will continue tomorrow with match play scheduled to open Friday.

Start Qualifying Round

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—Qualifying rounds for the Rancho Invitational tournament start today with an entry list of around 200. Qualifying will continue tomorrow with match play scheduled to open Friday.

Pond Scores Touchdown in Bulldog-Tiger Game

More than 80,000 persons saw Old Eli humble the Princeton Tiger last Saturday in their annual gridiron struggle. The final score was 27 to 0 in Yale's favor. Pond, right halfback for Yale, is shown breaking through the Princeton line for the Bulldogs' first score of the game.

Just a Word or Two

By FRED S. HUNTER.
By FRED S. HUNTER.

NOW that it is definitely established that the singular one from Senegal, Mons. Louis Phal, alias SIKI, is a far more formidable batter in the kidded cafes and along the boulevards than in the prize ring, we may prepare for a succession of insistent challenges and defiant outbursts from the Senegambian clan of the cauliflower industry in this country.

Willie Ward of Baltimore, who for no apparent reason prefers to call himself Kid Norfolk, has never had to outfit himself with smoked glasses to protect his one good eye from his own dazzling speed, but he proved sufficiently efficient in the various requirements of assault and battery to lambast the daylight out of the dusky idol of the Montmartre for 15 stanzas. And any knight of the padded mitt who takes as lightly as he a bear with one foot and swings long punches with much venom, nor a downright failure. He lost the decision but won many friends by his ability to laugh off a punch which what seems to be his ingrained courtesy and good humor.

The Batter, in short, can come back for more fights, an American dollar, provided any athlete can hope long to survive the losing fight with dispassion for the Norfolk fight and it was inevitable that his sodden system must protest under violent exercise. Hence, the "shots" between rounds.

They had the effect of making him flash into furious rallies of 10 seconds duration, a falling, incongruous figure of man-ape, who loses in like a bear with one foot and swings long punches with much venom, nor a downright failure. He lost the decision but won many friends by his ability to laugh off a punch which what seems to be his ingrained courtesy and good humor.

Without these advantages it is conceivable that Norfolk might have lost. Siki knew absolutely nothing about protecting himself in the clinches; he could not block at long range except with his head and his footwork at times was laughable. Yet our young friend had something besides a bullet head and a funny face. He is a swinger, pure and simple, but a good one at that. His long lefts, with the speed of a glint of light, and with better direction, might have scored a knockout as it did over George, the pale lily. After watching that left move, it was easy to conjecture one's self that Carpenter's knockout was genuine, whatever the circumstances that led up to it.

SIKI's right swing was fair enough and he is given to eccentric moves that sometimes prompted Norfolk to leave openings for a punch but a swinger was ever an inaccurate hitter and easy to avoid. Siki couldn't hit a straight punch for all the gin footwork at times was laughable. Yet our young friend had something besides a bullet head and a funny face. He is a swinger, pure and simple, but a good one at that. His long lefts, with the speed of a glint of light, and with better direction, might have scored a knockout as it did over George, the pale lily. After watching that left move, it was easy to conjecture one's self that Carpenter's knockout was genuine, whatever the circumstances that led up to it.

ILLINOIS FOLLOWERS DECLARE ZUPPKE GREATER THAN STAGG

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 21.—University of Illinois football supporters last night disputed the claim advanced by "admirers of Coach A. A. Stagg of the University of Chicago" that the veteran Chicago coach is the "miracle man" of the Big Ten.

They asserted it was erroneous to base the claim on statistics leaving out the reckoning one year—that of 1918—when the Chicago team lost every conference game played and Illinois came through with a clean slate and the championship.

"Why bar the S. A. T. C. year?" is their query. "Every Big Ten school except Indiana played a conference schedule all over the country at the time."

Chicago lost every conference game played and Illinois came through with a clean slate and the championship.

So again this year we find the Babe back in Sudbury determined to stick to his wood chopping and a winter period of decorous behavior. It looks like another big year for the circuit etouler.

Opportunity Slips Away

We have been waiting patiently for an announcement that Tiny Jim Herman had been matched to fight Jack Clifford at Sioux City. Instead we are given something of a shock by the news that a young man by the name of Perkins has succeeded in maintaining himself in an upright position in the same ring with Herman for 12 rounds, although he did lose the decision.

We crave information? Whom? This Perkins to stand up before Tiny Jim for 12 rounds? And why hasn't Jack Lewis seized at Jack Clifford? Clifford knocks out Big Munn, Gene Melody's protégé at Sioux City, and thereby establishes himself as a drawing card in that city. Herman could earn at least $500 or $500 for himself by fighting Clifford at Sioux City, and without danger to his own welfare since Clifford is a third rater whom Herman could tip over in a round or two. Andy Schneider did it without any trouble. Here's opportunity knocking at Herman's door while Tiny apparently blissfully unaware goes journeying out to Casper, Wyo. and finds the mysterious Mr. Perkins waiting for him. Oh, well, maybe opportunity will knock again.

The Northwestern team is determined to make a good showing before the homecoming crowd Saturday. With the exception of Wolf all the men are back in uniform. Great stress is laid on passing and it is believed that the state will be the main attack against Iowa.

Illinois Tops Big Ten in Wins

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—The Big Ten championship race is in as fine a mix-up as the most ardent fan could hope for with three teams having a chance at the title and the outcome depending on the showing to be made this weekend.

Illinois has four victories without a defeat as compared to Michigan with a perfect score of three victories and Minnesota with two victories and one tie game. The Illinois team must overcome Ohio State at Columbus this weekend, to claim first honors, while Minnesota and Michigan fight it out on Wolverine soil.

Of secondary importance only in that they are out of the race for the conference championship are the fights between Iowa and Northwestern at Evanston, Purdue and Indiana at Bloomington and Wisconsin and Chicago at Chicago.

Iowa is favored for an easy victory over the Purple team, Purdue and Indiana are considered more evenly matched, while all predict a close fight between Chicago and the Hoosier team.

Scrambled Sports!

WHEN you can't make money at one thing try another.

That's the way Champion Benny Leonard, lightweight boss, looked at things nowadays.

Leonard has cleaned up about every logical contender in his class and sometimes he has stepped outside of his own backyard and beat a welterweight. He is one of the best drawing cards in the ring today except, of course, Jack Dempsey.

Leonard doesn't hesitate to pick up a few thousand dollars here and there, but he has no desire to display his fistie ability for a mere pittance, so he has took to the stage for the winter months.

The excellent actor behind the footlights, his performance in "Hitchy Koo" and "The Dancing Girl," the latter which prospered and enjoyed an extended run on Broadway, were considered good.

Cauliflowerism will miss Leonard during the winter months, but when the flowers bloom in the spring, Ira L. Benny will be back in Gotham chinning with Tex Rickard over an other bout with Lew Tendler or John Dundee, or perhaps with Mickey Walker, who knows.

Grid Team Like Race Horse.

FOOTBALL team may be likened to a race horse.

Some race horses make poor showings in their first two or three races run then in their fourth start romp home an easy winner.

So it is with a football team.

Take Nebraska for instance. The Cornhuskers got off to a poor start. Their second time out the Huskers tied Kansas and their third time tied Missouri or Missouri tied them, any way you want to put it. In their fourth game the Nebraska's showed better form and won easily from Oklahoma. They were at the top of their form against Notre Dame and won. The Huskers, off to a poor start, seem to be playing in top form at the present.

The same can be said of Creighton university.

Then there is the other side of the race.

Crimson Star Wins Scholarship Award

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.

Charles J. Hubbard, Jr., captain of the Harvard football team, has been awarded the Burr scholarship for leadership in every phase of college life. The award was founded in honor of Francis H. Burr, captain of the 1895 team and goes to the member of the senior class who combines as nearly as possible the fine qualities of scholarship, character and athletic ability exemplified by Burr, who played the same guard position played by Hubbard.