The Sixty-six club will give a dance at the Fontenelle ballroom Saturday evening.

The officers of Fort Crook will give a bridge party Saturday evening at the Service club.

Mrs. Howard Shinn will entertain at dinner today for Mrs. Horace Chapin of Batavia, N. Y., guest of Mrs. E. E. Strieker.

Mrs. Lloyd True, afternoon bridge, honoring Mrs. Clyde Parsley, formerly Miss Frances Aldrich, of Nebraska City.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hertz have as their weekend guests from Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts and Mrs. Helen Avery. In their honor, a dinner will be given at the Brandeis, this evening for 16 guests with bridge following at the Hertz home. Mrs. Hertz will have Sunday dinner for her guests at her home.

Mrs. H. Howard Biggar entertained at luncheon today at her home in honor of Mrs. B. F. Krolle and Miss Helen Flannery. Both Mrs. Krolle and Miss Flannery are leaving Omaha before the holidays, the former to make her home in Los Angeles and the latter to spend several months at Tucson, Ariz.

Miss Rees Tells of Carillon Bells

Members of the Continental club were entertained and instructed at luncheon yesterday at Hotel Fontenelle by Miss Henrietta M. Rees, music critic of The Omaha Bee, who gave a few impressions of the carillon bells of Holland and Belgium, where she visited about a year ago.

These bells weigh from 18 to 18,000 pounds each and are arranged in chromatic order as in the manner of a piano keyboard. Miss Rees said, "They were installed in many European towns in the 14th and 15th centuries and we found them in series of 44 to 52 bells."

Miss Rees explained that these bells usually are in cathedrals and town halls and are known by names, such as "Salvatore." At Ghent she played the carillons, her first number being "The Star Spangled Banner," without a mistake.

"The sound of these bells has a cheering and refreshing effect upon the visitor," she said. "Frequently I would wait for them to ring. The carillon is a public official of his town. I learned that many years ago the carillons were used more for announcing the time."

The Continental club decided to give 100 per cent support next Monday and Tuesday toward finishing the Community Chest campaign. The club will be under the leadership of W. W. Koller, one of the majors of the Community Chest drive and a member of the Continental club.

Cullen-Winship
Announcement is made of the marriage of Thomas William Cullen, son of Mrs. Dennis Cullen, and Mrs. Myrtle Callahan Winship, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Callahan, which took place Thursday in the chapel of St. Francis Catholic church in Council Bluffs. The Rev. Father Leo Patrick of St. Margaret and Mary Catholic church of Dundas performed the ceremony, which was witnessed only by relatives. Mrs. Mark Walker, a sister of the bride, and Dennis Cullen, a brother of the groom, were attendants.

Mrs. Cullen and bride have gone to Des Moines to be at home temporarily at the Fontenelle hotel.

Ak-Sar-Ben Riding Club Formed.
Omaha's riding future is assured. At least the forming of the Ak-Sar-Ben Riding club Thursday day at a luncheon given by George Brandeis to a group of enthusiasts gives cause for hope.

This fall there has been a rising tide of interest in the sport, and in polo, which the club sponsors, and Thursday it culminated in the organization of the club.

If plans go through, Omaha will have a riding academy with a tank arena, showers, etc., with competent instructors who will make riding for beginners as easy on real nags as on rocking horses.

Prominent in the movement are Mr. Brandeis, E. E. Brandeis, Dr. H. M. Fitzhugh, Floyd Kunz, Stewart Summers, William Bushman, Wilber and Myron Smith, Jack Squires, George Stocking, Frank McCaffery, Dr. Ray Byrne and Tom Quinlan. Thursday they took preliminary steps, electing George Stocking to the secretaryship of the club, and Jack Squires to the publicity secretaryship.

A larger meeting will be held later, to elect other officers. M. C. Peters and Louis Nash are among those sponsoring the club.

Wedding Cards of Henry Wood Come From Paris

Friends of Henry Wood, former Omaha newspaper man, one of the country's United Press correspondents during the war, and afterwards at the peace conference, were interested on receiving invitations to his wedding to Mademoiselle Noelle Juvet of Geneva, Switzerland.

The form of the invitations is interesting to Omahans, for within the conventional large square envelope there were two folders, with the announcements on the second page of both, one from the mother of the betrothed girl, and one from Mr. Wood. On the first page, a raised monogram linked the initials "H" and "N."

Monsieur Henry Wood, A l'honneur de vous faire part de son prochain mariage avec Mademoiselle Noelle Juvet, Hotel des Bergues, Geneva, Novembre, 1923.

Madame Vve. P. Juvet, A l'honneur de vous faire part du prochain mariage de sa fille, Noelle avec Monsieur Henry Wood, Geneva, Novembre, 1923, 3 Route de Chene.

The great distance, of course, precludes the presence of Mr. Wood's Omaha friends at the ceremony. The lack of a definite date set in the month of November made some of those invited wonder if it were an invitation or a publishing of the banns.

Mme. August Borgium, an authority on all things French because of her French birth, assured the recipients that it was an invitation and as such unusual. The French rarely mail word before the wedding, she tells us. "One never knows. There are so many slips, between the cup and the lip. Very seldom do they say anything until it is accomplished. Rather an interesting sidelight on the American man, and the French trust in him."

Mr. Wood is well known in Nebraska. Raised in a small Iowa town, he attended the University at Lincoln where he was a Sigma Chi. Later he was city editor for a local newspaper leaving that position to be war correspondent. He returned to the United States in 1921 bringing

Crisis Looms in France Poincaire May Be Deposed Middle Classes Gaining

Here is a new angle to the international situation which is creating so much concern to England, France and Germany and is holding the interest of all the rest of the world.

These are some of the observations made by H. G. Wells, author of "The Outline of History," in a tour of France. In his special cable dispatch, which will appear exclusively in The Sunday Bee, the famous English author makes some new and startling revelations upon the importance of the 1924 elections in France and their bearing upon the future policies of Europe.

Don't fail to read Wells' enlightening dispatch in The Sunday Bee.

He was the son of millionaire parents. He belonged to all the exclusive clubs. Then why did he take taxi driver's job?

The romantic mystery of the rich Mr. Francis Ormond French's job as a chauffeur is the talk of New York. It sounds more like a thrilling movie than a chapter out of real life, but that's what it is. The story, illustrated by actual photographs, will appear in the magazine section of The Sunday Bee.

Additional Features in The Sunday Bee

The Honorable Tony, a strange story of strange life in a strange part of the world. By Frances Noyes Hart.

The first Christmas story. O. O. McIntyre tells it.

Mark Sullivan's review of the political situation.

Ame Martin's rare wit and unique philosophy.

Thanksgiving, a camera symposium by Louis R. Bostwick in the rotogravure section.

Four pages in colors of the best comics published anywhere.

No "best" age for marriage, says Mary Johnston, famous author. Marry to please yourself, she advises.

What's going on in the New York theaters. By Percy Hammond.

Happyland, the department devoted to the youngsters.

Fashion Fanny, the cutout for girls of all ages.

Complete reports from staff writers on the Nebraska-Syracuse and Creighton-Oklahoma games.

All the society and club news of Omaha and Council Bluffs.

And don't forget—The Sunday Bee is the only Sunday paper published in Nebraska that is served by three Saturday night news wires—The Associated Press, The International News Service and the Universal Service.
