

Western Stockmen May Get a Hearing

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Washington, Nov. 24.—Congressman Bob Simmons of Nebraska today filed protest with the United States tariff commission against concluding an investigation on the proposed lower tariff on cattle requested by Pennsylvania and New York feeders until western Nebraska, Colorado and Wyoming cattlemen had an opportunity to be heard. The protest was followed by numerous letters to western cattlemen by Simmons asking them if they desired to be present at the hearing. The Pennsylvania and New York raisers are reported to be eager to get cheaper cattle for feeding from Canada and assert they can accomplish their aim by a reduced tariff. "The middlewest has cattle to sell for that purpose as well as Canada," Simmons said today.

College Students in Crash Escape Death

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 24.—Returning from Doane college to spend the week end in Beatrice, Ernestine Sorey, Bertha Fischback and Paige Crawford narrowly escaped death near Cortland last night on the Cornhusker highway, when the car in which they were riding, driven by Rev. M. Lee Sorey of this city, collided with one driven by C. V. Nelson of Omaha.

The Sorey car was overturned, pinning down its occupants, who escaped with severe cuts and bruises. Mr. Nelson was badly cut by glass. Both machines were wrecked. Don't forget the Classified ads.

Turkey Catching to Be Held at Audubon

Audubon, Ia., Nov. 24.—Audubon will observe its second annual turkey day next Tuesday when 30 turkeys will be thrown from the roofs of business houses of the city to become the property of those who are so fortunate as to catch them.

Arrangements have been made for the Ladies' Aid society of one of the churches to serve coffee and doughnuts free in the library basement during the afternoon. Last year the event attracted thousands to the city and another large is expected this year.
