There is a noteworthy growth of operation between the south and orth in this work of co-operation. Several southern states have made arrangements to take care of much of our corn crop, while we have adopted measures to secure quantities of their products. This intersectional buying has not been developed in the past as much as was possible.

 bushels per acre. The early fall rains which enabled the farmers to get their wheat in and then turn their attention to husking has advanced the fall farm work more than it has been for several years. Those who have finished their husking and still have stacked wheat on their farms are now bushy engaged in threshing. Red Cloud High School Class Does Real Farming Red Cloud, Neb., Nov. 25.—The Smith-Hughes class of the high school is doing practical work along agricultural lines. Among the things being carried on are animal husbandry projects, among them being the raising of hogs, dairy and poultry production, the feeding of steers, one boy having chosen the feeding of baby beef. The work will continue through the summer. The boys hat'e learned sharpened and an exercise in belt lacting was put on recently. Aaron Conover Dies in Utah.
