HUNGER STRIKER DENIED BURIAL

London, Nov. 28.-Bishop Cohalan of Cork has refused to allow the religious exercises which constitute Christian burial for the body of Commandant Dennis Barry, who died from the effects of a hunger strike at New Bridge and whose body reached Cork last evening, says a press association dispatch from Cork to-

Explaining the reasons for his refusal in a letter to the Cork Examiner the message states, Bishop Cohalan says he regrets very much being obliged to take the course he did, but declares that if it was his own brother who took the course Com-mandant Barry took, he would deal with the case in the same way.
