

Nations Respect U. S., Bishop Says

We Should Use Opportunity to Serve — Message of Thanksgiving Address.

Bishop Homer C. Stuntz, addressing members of the Continental club at luncheon yesterday in Hotel Fontenelle, stated that this country has a unique opportunity to serve humanity. He was applauded when he asserted that the United States should exert an influence with other nations, but should not become involved politically with other countries.

"It was not intended that this country should be involved in the great and intricate of other nations," the bishop said. He spoke in a spirit of thanksgiving—of the things that should inspire a feeling of gratitude among the people of this nation.

"America has a tremendous influence abroad," the speaker added. "The world now knows that this country can fight when necessary. Even Japan is convinced of that. We should be thankful because we have shown such marvelous recuperative powers since the world war. We should be grateful when we realize that we are so prosperous while other parts of the world are hungry. There is reason for thankful hearts when we realize that this country of ours has furnished the world the norm of political growth. I thank God for the measure of prosperity we have, for it is real prosperity when measured by the standards of the past."

Bishop Stuntz exposed the person who continually refers to the "good old times," or refers disparagingly to present-day conditions.

"We are the most comfortably housed and fed people under the sun," the speaker added. "We are in a more hopeful condition than any courageous prophet would have predicted five years ago. I heard a man the other day—he was a preacher and should have known better—refer to the good old times. There never was such an animal. It is an illusion of mortal mind. In the good old times that I remember I arose in the morning in a cold house, woke the ice in the wash basin, milked 30 cows before breakfast and rode to town in a box wagon. We had no paved roads. Think of the comforts, luxuries and refinements we enjoy today, and then tell me not of the good old times. We are in the good old times, here and now. Let us be thankful and grateful. Let us promote brotherly love and good will."

North Loup Man Says Bank Lent to Director

Lincoln, Nov. 30.—Charles Steinecker of North Loup, in a letter to the attorney general's office today asks "what recourse at law have we if the directors of a bank let one of their number have $7,500 of its money, and he then goes broke." Steinecker says he is a stockholder in a bank where, just such a transaction took place. He wants to know whether the bank must stand the loss, or whether the directors are individually liable.

Managing officers of banks are forbidden by law to make loans to themselves, but a director who is not an officer may borrow with the approval of the board of directors, it was pointed out at the attorney general's office.

Farm Bloc Ready to Launch Fight

Program Includes Shifting of Tax Burden and Cut in Rail Rates.

By International News Service. Washington, Nov. 30.—The interests of American farmers will be amply protected in the coming session of congress under a tentative program of legislation drafted today by leaders of the two congressional farm blocs.

Revision of tax laws, shifting more of the tax burden from the poor to the rich, and heavy reduction in transportation costs will be the chief planks in this program, according to Senator Arthur Capper, republican of Kansas, chairman of the senate farm bloc. The program will be finally adopted at a meeting of farm bloc members as soon as congress convenes.

Capper announced a tentative legislative program, favored by farm leaders in all sections of the country. It included: 1. Revision of tax laws, with the reduction of taxes on incomes under $10,000 as the immediate goal, and the placing of heavy taxes on all inheritances and those securities now listed as tax exempt. 2. Partial revision of the Esch-Cummings act with repeal of the so-called rate guarantee clause and such legislative action as is necessary to bring lower freight rates. 3. Creation of an agricultural export corporation, probably with a capitalization of $100,000,000, to expand export trade. 4. Endorsement of the co-operative marketing movement by providing wider government credit facilities.

Tories Favored By Bookmakers

By International News Service. London, Nov. 30.—Former Premier Lloyd George carried his political fight into North Wales today, campaigning with the picturesque vigor that formerly marked the "swings around the circle of the late Theodore Roosevelt in the United States. Some days he delivers from 20 to 30 speeches.

With only four more days of active campaigning before the general election on December 6 the betting has become lively. Bookmakers are laying odds of 50 to 1 against a labor government, 4 to 1 against a liberal government and 4 to 1 against the Tories getting a majority of 100 in the house of commons.
