FEW YORK, Nov. 30 .- The last rites will be observed tomorrow over the body politic of collegiate football, a body in which life is almost extinct. Football is dying a lingering death.

It will die intestate in three out of the four major sections of the couny, with the heirs bickering the legacies of championship honors. In the east, Cornell will take exception to Yale's claim for championship rating. with West Virginia finally eliminated through its defeat yesterday by Washington and Jefferson. In the middle west, Michigan and Illinois are pleased to admit that they rule the roost jointly and in collaboration, but it would be a rugged matter to convince a Maruette man that his team couldn't hold Yale for downs twice inside the 20-yard line as it did

California has Bulldog seems to have the edge in Washington running second and from the running to the passing game Southern California, Stanford and being readier than Cornell, Then Arizona grouped in third position, again, Cornell has no field goal kicker though the final standing of the Coast to class with Mallory.

Personally and for our nonessen-tial part, we would rate the section champions in this manner, to-wit: East, Yale; middle west, Michigan and Illinois; South, Texas; Pacific coast, California.

Placing Yale above Cornell is pre-carious business, Since the ques-tion of superiority never can be proved. It is merely an opinion based on the writer's belief that the Yale team is faster and carries the greater variety and deception on attack and the greater number scoring plays. Possibly Yale tackle runs. Pennsylvania didn't yesterday, however, and Penn's de-fense doesn't rate with Yale's.. We
