for the statue could be provided, but

The governor of South Carolina recently proclaimed a Day of Prayer against the boll weevil; was this a rational thing to do? Does prayer alter events in the natural and human worlds? Is there a power in prayer to help us to be victors in the struggle of life? Is there a technique of prayer?

This question will be discussed by Rev. Ralph E. Bailey at the First Unitarian Church, 3114 Harney St., Sunday, at 11:00 a. m.

First Central Church

The Auditorium of the First Central Church is being crowded to its capacity to hear Dr. Smith's Sunday Evening Lectures. The subject tomorrow evening is:

"Is Christian Science increasing or de creasing in its power and influence: is there any power in the mind or soul to heal the body; have the various schools of non-medical healing been a blessing or a curse to humanity?"
