Home made candy will be for sale.

Gymnasium Party.
The Benson community gymnasium class entertained at a party Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the city hall. Guests of the class included members of immediate families and friends. After musical games and physical culture drills a luncheon was served. This is one of the largest evening classes in Benson, having a membership of nearly 30.

First Wedding in New Church.
The first wedding in the new Baptist church was solemnized Monday evening, November 26, at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Emma Ehlers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ehlers, and Clarence E. Lamb, both of Benson, were united in marriage by their pastor, Rev. G. L. Sharpe. Mrs. Eugene Ward sang "At Dawning," by Cadman, and P. B. Oliver sang "All Joy Be Thine," by Wilfrid Sanderson. Little Miss Erna Ehlers, niece of the bride, was ring bearer and led the bridal party to the altar, which was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. L. Sharpe. Miss Velma Aylworth attended the bride and Mr. William Blansitt, the groom. After the ceremony a reception for friends was held in the church, followed by a reception for the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Lamb will be at home after December 15 at 6527 Spencer street.

Mrs. H. J. Sicker will read the stories of the folk songs and a Russian dance will be given by the Misses Alta B. Wolcott and Elizabeth Fry. The public is invited. There will be no admission charge.

Thanksgiving Bride

Mrs. Newell Johnson

Terminating a romance which had its inception at the state university of Iowa came the wedding on Thanksgiving afternoon of Miss Maurine Wallace, daughter of Mrs. Sarah D. Wallace and Newell Johnson, formerly of Woodbine, but now of Omaha.

Preceding the ceremony, which was marked with the greatest simplicity, Miss Wallace and Mr. Johnson greeted the relatives and a few intimate friends who had gathered for the event, and later Rev. Paul Calhoun of the First Presbyterian church read the marriage lines.

The bride wore a brown traveling costume and there were no attendants.
Mrs. Johnson is a Pi Beta Phi and last June was graduated from Iowa city, where Mr. Johnson had received his degree a year earlier. Mr. Johnson is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.
After a honeymoon in the east the young couple will make their home in Council Bluffs.

Council Bluffs Society

recently received letter stating that she planned to journey to India and Palestine and would make a trip through Europe before returning home.

Mrs. Cora Kellar Farnsworth spent Thanksgiving in Iowa City with her son, Tom, who is a student at the state university.
