

When is a policeman not a policeman? Because a physician wasn't at hand when Mrs. Harriett Byrne of New York gave birth to a healthy youngster. Traffic Officer Louis Barboel left his post and helped bring the child into the world. The officer is pictured above with the baby.

A proposal every 100 miles she liked Jean Cordell, 20, is pictured in the car she wore during her hike from Milwaukee to Montana and back. She says she averaged a proposal for every 100 miles she hiked.

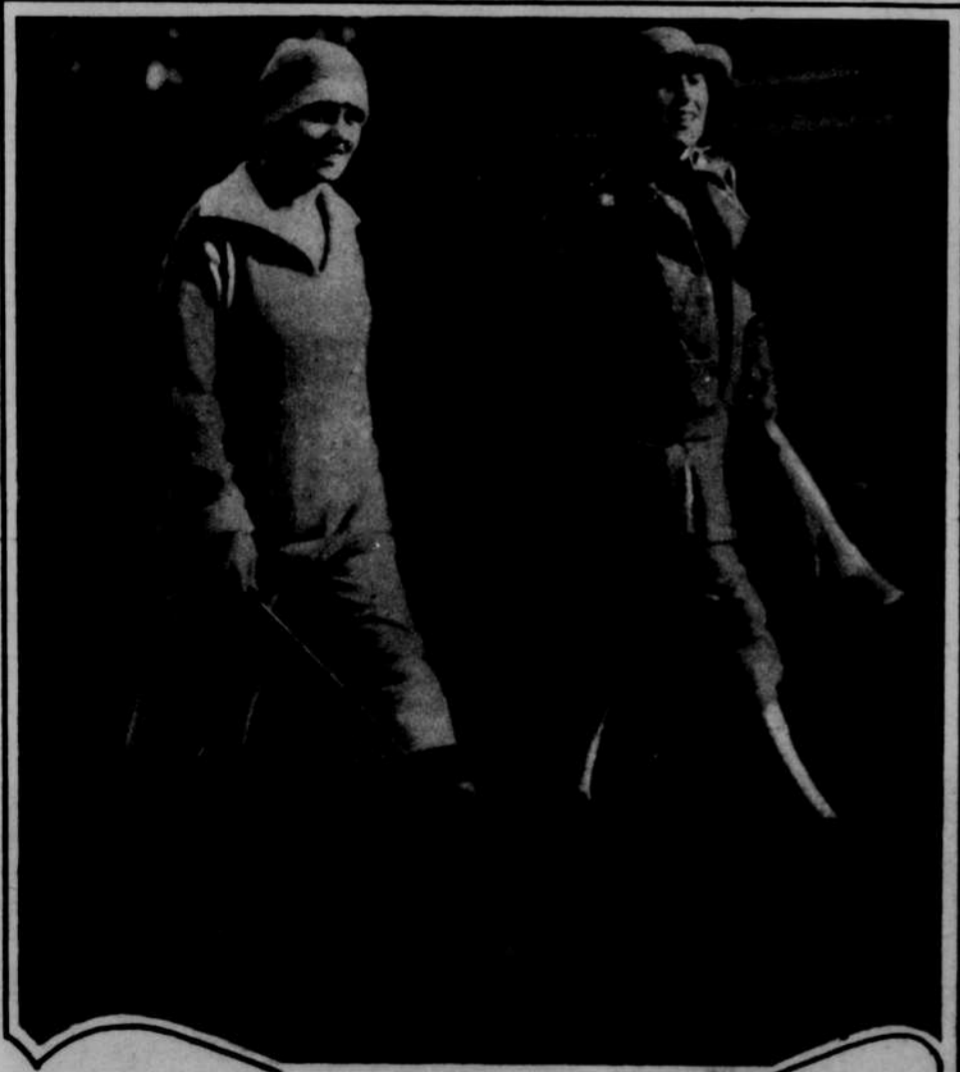

Society deba as traffic cops. Miss Margaret Stout is pictured directing traffic at Forty-second and Fifth avenue, New York. It was a stunt to get publicity for the New York society benefit performance of "Night With a Punch," given at the Hotel Astor for the benefit of the National Child Labor committee.

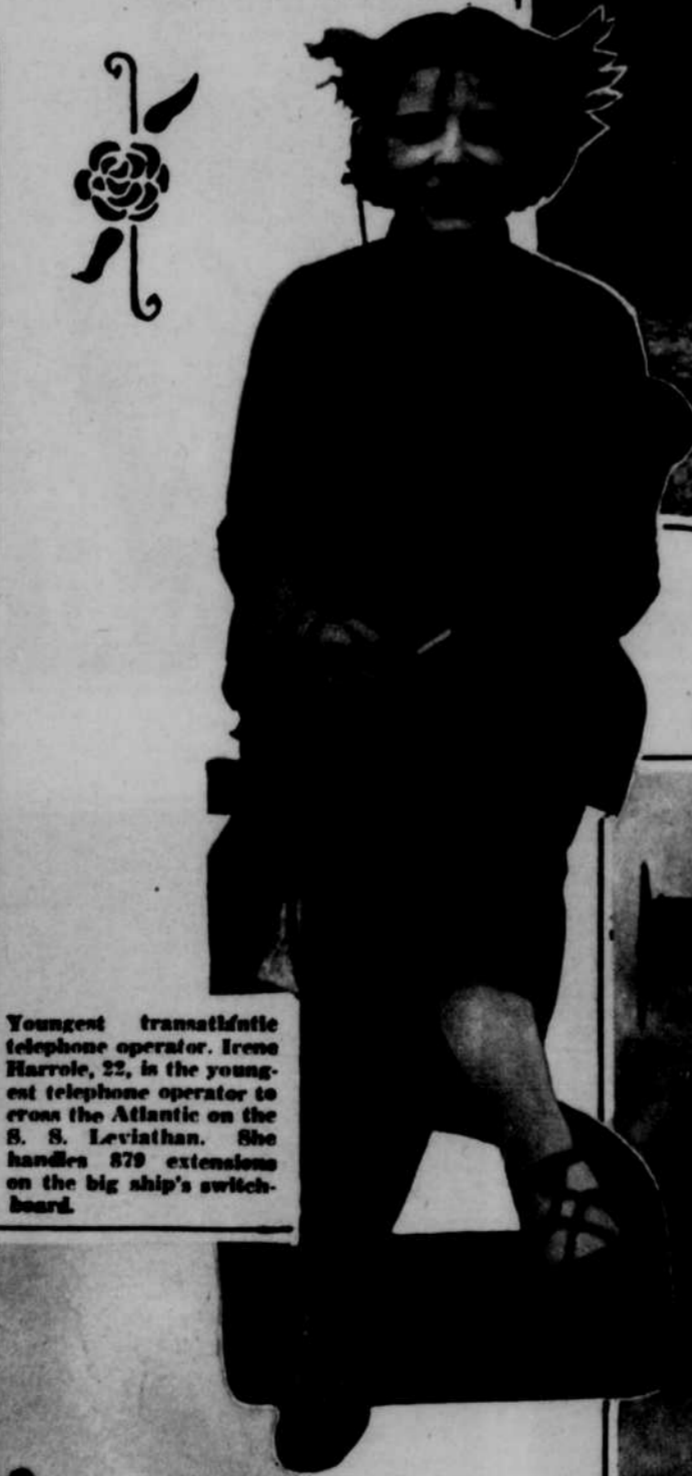

Members of the domestic education section of the Omaha College club. Front row, left to right: Mrs. J. E. Votava, Mrs. Andrew Nelson, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. R. L. Suetzer, Mrs. Stephen Cronk, Mrs. J. E. Barton, Mrs. Ira Jones, Mrs. H. H. Henningson. Second row, left to right: Mrs. Ernest Glover, Mrs. Forrest Byrd, Mrs. Herbert Woodland, Mrs. M. Gay, Mrs. Herbert Potter, Mrs. Floyd Lockeridge. Third row, left to right: Mrs. Paul Bradley, Mrs. William Burton, Mrs. McKenzie, Mrs. Robert Wade, Mrs. William Locke. Last row, left to right: Mrs. Fred Hill, Mrs. A. L. Turner, Mrs. G. M. Ross, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. McGibbon, Mrs. Harry Rivett, Mrs. J. W. Roberts, Mrs. R. S. Edgcomb, Mrs. R. L. Thurston.

Edinburgh students riot during elections. A pitched battle between Liberal and Tory students occurred during the polling at Edinburgh university when Stanley Baldwin, the British premier, was chosen as rector.

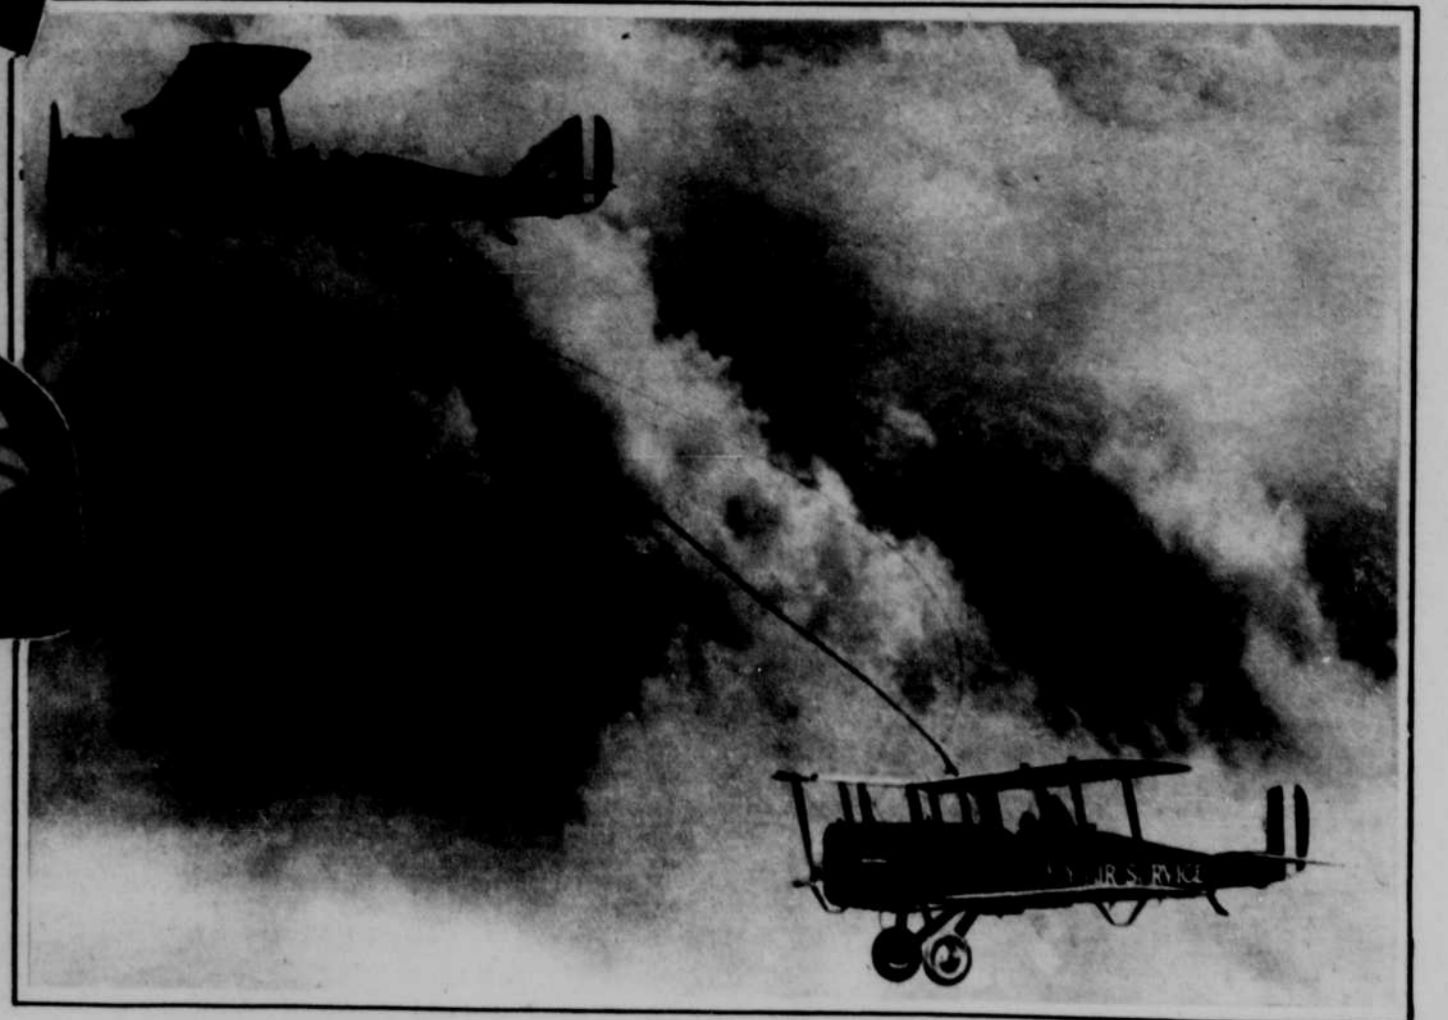

"Plus Fours" for women golfers. Lillian Blake, English opera singer, and her companion create a sensation at the Wimbledon park links in London when they appear in the new Arlington convertible "Plus Four" skirt, which is easily changed into golfing knickers.

Youngest transatlantic telephone operator. Irene Harrois, 22, is the youngest telephone operator to cross the Atlantic on the S. S. Leviathan. She handles 879 extensions on the big ship's switchboard.

Triple-barrelled action in British race. Three jumpers took tumbles at the first obstacle in the recent Fairbright selling handicap at Sandown park, England. The three mounts are pictured here as they spilled.

Airplane refuels in midair. The ship in which Capt. Smith and Lieut. Richter of the army air service made a non-stop flight from the Canadian to Mexican border, is shown refueling while in flight 3,500 feet in the air.