

Sarazen, Havers to Play for World Title Next Month

Match Will Be Held in California—Winner to Receive Large Purse—Will Play 72 Holes.

By THOMAS L. CUMMISKEY.

New York, Dec. 5.—A 72-hole golfing battle between Arthur Havers, the British open champion, and Gene Sarazen, the American professional titleholder, will be waged in January in California. The match really amounts to the world professional championship, though it is unofficial.

Agreements have been signed for the affair and it will be held in January with the first 36 holes at San Francisco and the second 36 holes at Los Angeles. The dates probably will be January 18 and 20, according to present plans. The two champions have never met in match play competition, and have agreed not to appear in a single match prior to their meeting in California.

It was originally intended to hold the match in the east in November with the Engineers' club on Long Island and the Columbia club in Washington as the scene, but Havers' father died on the eve of his sailing date from England. A golf enthusiast had offered $3,000 as a prize for the battle.

The match in California will be promoted by Robert E. Harlow, well known in golfing circles and will be a rich purse. Havers will arrive in this country on December 19 with James Ockenden, British professional, who will be his partner in a series of four-ball exhibitions being arranged by T. W. Niblett, his American manager.

After attaining much note by winning the North of England championship in 1921 and 1922, Havers arose to the heights by gaining the British open crown at Troon this year, beating Walter Hagen, who won the event last year by one stroke. He also won the Glen Eagles tourney, another famous event abroad.

Sarazen shot to fame in 1922 by winning the American open championship at Skokie, heading Bobby Jones and John Black by a stroke. He also won the American professional title last year at Oakmont, and successfully defended that crown this year, beating Hagen on the 38th hole in the final round of the P. G. A. tourney at Pelham. Although relinquishing the open title to Bobby Jones, an amateur, Sarazen clearly proved his right to be called the American pro-professional king by topping the stars of the salaried clan.

Havers, of course, must be ranked as the professional champion of Great Britain by his victory in the open. It is to be noted also that he is the first Britisher to win the classic in three years. Jack Hutchinson went over from this country to win the British open in 1921, and Hagen brought the trophy here last year.

Roskusek Placed on All-Western

Chicago, Dec. 5.—Selection of a mythical all-western conference football team following the 1923 season by sport experts, critics and coaches has revealed a similarity of opinion as to outstanding players for most of the positions. The composite, including choices of eight out of 10 Big Ten coaches, results in the foreign selection for positions on the mythical eleven:

Center, Blott, Michigan.
Right guard, Fleckenstein, Iowa.
Right tackle, Muirhead, Michigan.
Right end, Roskusek, Illinois.
Quarterback, Workman, Ohio State.
Left half, Grange, Illinois.
Right half, Martineau, Minnesota.
Fullback, Taft, Wisconsin.

Deposed Official to Make Charges

Coast League President Feels Confident of Regaining Office.

New York, Dec. 5.—William H. McCarthy, the deposed president of the Pacific Coast league, is confident of being put back in office after he airs charges of syndicate baseball in the league before the National Board of Arbitration of Baseball in Chicago next week.

He made the statement today in the course of denouncing what he termed wrongful manipulation of the Pacific Coast League affairs, which saw Harry A. Williams elected to the presidency, in his place. McCarthy said in part:
"It is the business of the president of the Pacific Coast league to demand a detailed list of the names of owners and stockholders of any club seeking admission to the circuit and to obtain the list when a club is transferred."
"When Wade Killifer and Lockhart, heading a syndicate, bought the Seattle club last summer, I demanded the details and they were refused me, and I declined to recognize the representatives of the Seattle club. I was within my rights in doing this."
"An investigation disclosed that before the sale neither Killifer nor Lockhart had $125,000, announced as the purchase price. As William Wrig-Joy, owner of the Chicago Cubs, and the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast league, had employed both Killifer and Lockhart. It was claimed by me that he was buying Seattle also, and I have evidence to prove this claim."

"It was brought out at a hearing that Killifer did not know what the Seattle club had sold for. Syndicate baseball, or ownership of two or more clubs by one man, will ruin the game, and I have always stood against it."
"I have the law on my side and if the league constitution is to be enforced, I am certain I will be back in office before the next season begins. The National Board of Arbitration, made up of sincere men, will hear my evidence, and that should settle the matter in my favor."

Huskers Undecided as to Big Ten Game

Lincoln, Dec. 5.—University of Nebraska athletic authorities declined yesterday to discuss the possibility of scheduling games with Minnesota or Illinois, of the Big Ten conference, for next year. Until Nebraska's Missouri Valley conference schedule is made up, it was said, nothing definite could be arranged for contests with nonconference teams, except that with Notre Dame, which has already been arranged for at South Bend, November 15. The intimation was given that unless Minnesota and Illinois expressed a willingness to come to Lincoln for the games there could be none.

Kaw Schools May Sever Relations

Manhattan, Kan., Dec. 5.—There will be no severing of relations between Kansas Aggies and Kansas university without my strenuous protest. I am speaking for the Kansas State Agricultural college. I don't know who spoke for Kansas university."

Thurs declared President W. M. Jardine of the Aggies, when informed today of the alleged threat of athletic officials at the state university that they would not schedule a football game with the agricultural college next fall.
"I would regret it very much if the break should occur," said Dr. Jardine. "I'll oppose it strenuously. I refuse to believe the schools are not big enough to continue athletic relations with the strongest spirit of friendship and co-operation. I don't believe K. U. athletic officials would stand for it, as the schools are enjoying cordial relations at present, and such a break, no matter what the incentive, would be wrong."

"No complaints have come to me," he said. "The alleged threat of the university officials, and I am extremely inclined to doubt they made any such threat, has been called to my attention through the newspapers only."
