

Trial of Former Treynor Banker to Open Monday

Funds of Estate Alleged to Have Been Used to Pay Cost of Educating August Dammrow's Son.

The trial of August Dammrow, former cashier of the insolvent Treynor Savings bank, who was indicted on seven charges of embezzlement, will be opened Monday morning in Bluffs district court.

According to County Attorney Frank Northrop, Dammrow will be tried on the indictment charging him with the misuse of funds while executor of the estate of John Hennings. He is charged with having embezzled nearly $3,000 of the money to put his son, Arnold, through school and to pay debts. He is also charged with a total embezzlement of close to $50,000, while he held office in the bank.

Woman Bandit Holds Up Bank; Flees in Auto

Forces Ohio Savings and Loan Company Employees to Hand Over $1,300 at Point of Gun.

Fostoria, Ohio, Dec. 8.—A woman bandit today entered the Ohio Savings and Loan company and, pointing a revolver at employees, forced them to turn over to her $1,300, after which she escaped.

The woman, described as modestly attired and as calm as if she were negotiating ordinary business, scooped up all the money on the counter and fled in an automobile after she had cautioned Edith Allyn and Mable Blackford, clerks, not to give an alarm for 40 minutes.

After the woman had been gone several minutes, the girls notified the police, but no trace of the bandit could be found. Police at Toledo and other cities have been asked to watch for her.

The same woman, armed with a revolver, tried to hold up Carl Smith, secretary, in the office two weeks ago Saturday. Mr. Smith engaged her in conversation and signed a pass for her help. The woman fled without getting anything.

Blue Law Fight Goes on Merrily

Churches May Be Compelled to Obtain Police Permits to Hold Services.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 8.—Los Angeles churches without exception today faced the probable necessity of securing permits from the police commission to hold services tomorrow as the latest development in the "blue law" enforcement controversy. Councilman Gregory announced his determination to demand that Mayor Cray enforce a city ordinance prohibiting meetings of clubs, associations or organizations without a permit signed by the police commission. Another provision of the same ordinance states that organizations of persons for the purpose of promoting sports, literature, science, charity, politics, religion, or other common objects, come within the scope of the law.

Gregory declared that he would demand the arrest of Reverend "Bob" Schuler and Reverend Gustav Bleigh if they attempt to conduct a scheduled mass meeting tomorrow without obtaining a permit from the police commission.

"Master Mind" Held.

Los Angeles, Dec. 8.—Jack Ehrlich, sportsman, indicted with 21 others in connection with two Los Angeles mail robberies in which more than $2,000,000 in money and securities was taken from the mails, was arrested on a federal warrant here late last night and taken to the Pasadena county jail, where he was held incommunicado, it was learned last night.

According to federal authorities Ehrlich engineered the mail robberies started here in 1921 by the Herbert Wilson gang and was the head of a nation wide crime ring that figured in the sale and distribution of the loot obtained in the holdups.

Miss Hoagland Home.

Miss Helen Hoagland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hoagland, who underwent an operation at St. Louis recently which was performed by Dr. V. W. P. Blair, plastic surgeon, returned to her home Friday with her mother.

The operation was performed on the left cheek which was badly scarred when Miss Hoagland was injured in an auto accident near Tekamah a year ago.

Miss Hoagland will return to St. Louis when the first operation is entirely healed. There will be a series of operations on her face. The left eye was not injured.

Gives Marx Power.

Berlin, Dec. 8.—The measure conferring extraordinary powers upon the Marx government was passed by the German reichstag today. There were 313 affirmative votes and 18 negative votes. One member refrained from voting.

Chancellor Marx appealed for passage of the measure to enable the government to deal more effectively with pressing industrial, financial and political problems.

New Serial Starts in The Evening Bee Monday

They were seated at a little table beside a trickling fountain with goldfish and twinkling lights—blue and pink and yellow—shining in its depths and twinkling Hawaiian music sounding from somewhere in the distance. Scene from "Stella Dallas," Olive Higin Prophy's novel which starts in The Evening Bee tomorrow.

Nebraska's Republican Committee Woman Held in Great Esteem Here

As Country School Teacher She Heroically Took Pupils Home in Blizzard.

Women are coming into their own in national politics.

Mrs. Edgar S. Penney of Fullerton, Neb., has been appointed republican national committee woman for Nebraska, and her appointment has brought much joy to other women republican leaders of the state.

For Mrs. Penney is the sort of a woman who inspires both love and confidence, and is most thorough and aggressive in her undertakings, her associates say.

Mrs. Penney's record bears out the compliments that are bestowed upon her. An early resident of Nebraska, Mrs. Penney, as a young woman, taught a rural school near Ord. The terrible blizzard of 1888, in which many lost their lives, gave her an opportunity to display her courage and keen sense of duty.

As the blizzard grew more blinding and the temperature dropped to many degrees below zero, Mrs. Penney realized that the lives of the little group of children in her school were in danger. She found some rope, tied the children together, and led them out of the little school building into the storm. Unable to see in any direction she nevertheless managed to get the children safely to farm houses.

Since then, Mrs. Penney has held many non-political positions of importance. She was recently president of the Nebraska Federation of Woman's clubs and served one year as president of the state auxiliary to the American Legion. She was appointed by Governor McKelvie to assist in designing a new state seal. But despite these many duties she has never allowed them to interfere with her family life. Her husband and two sons are willing to testify to that.

In a letter to Mrs. Draper Smith of Omaha, Mrs. Penney explains that she will attend the national committee meeting in Washington December 11 and 12. She has received an invitation from President and Mrs. Coolidge.

Plan to Prevent Duplications of Charity Made

Clearing House for Christmas Giving Announced by Social Agencies.

As an outgrowth of the recent campaign of the Omaha Welfare Federation and Community Chest, a plan is in operation whereby a distribution of Christmas cheer can be made to deserving Omaha families.

The council of social agencies has asked all agencies, churches, and other institutions giving food and other Christmas cheer to Omaha families, to register the names and addresses of the families to whom they expect to make distribution. Such registration should be made at the Christmas Giving Clearing House.

By this means it is hoped to avoid duplication. It will enable those who desire lists of deserving persons to obtain them through the clearing house. In former seasons much of the giving has been duplicated because of the cross purposes of numerous organizations not centering their list in one common point so that the greatest number can be served to the greatest good, it is said.

An experienced secretary will be in charge of the registration. Omaha citizens have been urged to submit in writing the names and addresses of those who they know are deserving, or ask for names and addresses of those to whom they would like to give.

The Christmas Giving Clearing House will be at the Community Chest office, city hall.

Woman Admits Setting Fire to House and Barn

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Beatrice, Neb., Dec. 8.—Admitting that she set fire to her home and barn in Glenview last night, Mrs. Ida R. Devitt of this city, was adjudged insane today and ordered committed to the asylum. The firemen extinguished the flames before much damage resulted.

Iowa Coal Dealers Face 26 Court Suits

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 8.—As a result of a series of investigations, the state bureau of weights and measures today announced that 26 court actions will be filed against Iowa coal dealers, alleging short weight.

Loads of coal from 31 Des Moines dealers were inspected. Chief Inspector McMurray, declared, and large discrepancies were found.

The inspectors covered every county in the state, including 142 towns and inspected 746 loads.

According to McMurray, many loads were from 200 to 700 pounds short.

New Police "Stars" Not So Large But They're Just as Persuasive

"Cops" Quarrel Over Possession of Lucky Numbers, So Seniority Settles It.

By these badges, ye shall know them.

They are the new insignia of all Omaha detectives, somewhat smaller, and less ornate, than the design formerly in use.

Considerable controversy developed in connection with the issuance of the badges, each detective clamoring for his favorite number. As a result, they were issued on the basis of seniority.

This made Fred Palmtag and William Gurnett the "lucky" pair. Palmtag drew No. 11, and Gurnett No. 23. No. 13 was issued to Detective F. S. Aughe, Frank Murphy, the oldest detective, in point of service, on the department, got No. 1. Ben Danbaum got No. 2.

Several detectives, dissatisfied with the unpretentious dimensions of the new badges, desired to have them gold-plated. This request Inspector of Police Puzanowski refused. Only a captain, he holds, is entitled to have his badge gold-plated.

Pete McGuire's request for permission to have his badge engraved with shamrocks also was denied.

Single-Handed Battle Looms in Congress; Magnus Will Fight It

Washington, Dec. 8.—A one-man war loomed on the congressional horizon today when Senator Magnus Johnson, farmer-laborer of Minnesota gave warning that he will fight senatorial confirmation of the appointment of former Senator Frank B. Kellogg, as ambassador to Great Britain.

"I will not stand by the appointment of Kellogg," Johnson told International News Service. "I don't believe ex-Senator Kellogg represents the ideas of the progressive people of America and therefore I will oppose his confirmation by the senate."

Johnson may be alone in his fight, for even his colleague, Senator Henrik Shipstead, farmer-laborer of Minnesota, said he was "undecided" about opposing Kellogg's appointment.

Hardware Found on Farm May Be Stolen From Omaha

Norfolk, Neb., Dec. 7.—When sheriff John Kellog of Knox county went to search a farm occupied by J. W. Adams in the northern part of Knox county, near the Missouri river for stolen goods, on the complaint of the Santee Indian mission school authorities, he found a large quantity of hardware which he seized on suspicion. The hardware is believed to have been stolen from an Omaha company for which Adams, who recently came to Knox county from Omaha, formerly worked as a shipping clerk, it is said.

TOMORROW At Thompson-Belden's

Store Hours, 9 to 6.

It's very satisfying to have one's judgment proven wise, to have her opinion confirmed as correct. I'm glad that you've liked Madame Antoinette so well, for you see, I knew that we needed her to scold us, as she puts it, and to give us her very helpful ideas that are at the same time practical and inspirational.

Madame Antoinette Will Remain Another Week

Not to lecture, but to help you individually, to render the personal services in which she takes such great interest.

It Is More Satisfactory to Make an Appointment

—then you are certain of Madame's time at the hour that is most convenient to you. So many women who had planned to have new gowns for the holiday festivities have asked for drapes, that there was not enough time in the one week. Therefore Madame has arranged to remain another week with us before she goes east to Chicago.

She Will Drape, Pin, Cut and Give a Second Fitting on any dress or gown that you may wish to purchase now. She will shop with you for your personal needs, and for your gifts to others.

Her Time Is Gladly Given

Madame loves to shop, both for herself and for you. She'll fit your corset, select your undies, order a becoming Antoinette bandeau for your headdress, and generally aid you with any clothes perplexities that might trouble.

On Her Cinderella Foot

she wears a "Sorosis" shoe, size one and a half. Madame, who has been all through the "Sorosis" factory, tells me that every pair is made with greatest care, and that she buys "Sorosis" pumps even in France, for "Sorosis" footwear has won favor abroad as well as in this country.

Beads Will Always Be Good

said Madame in one of her lectures to women. Novelty jewelry, if properly selected for a particular costume, adds a completeness to the ensemble, she finds. Our beads in every shade are particularly attractive. Bracelets at $1 present fine values and are another suggestion for Christmas.

Fine Laces at Reduced Prices

Is not that a message to make you take out thimble and needle in preparation for gift making? All of our filet and Irish laces are offered at reduced prices. The narrow widths are only 15c a yard, and these are the very best qualities made.

Come shopping with Madame Antoinette on Monday.
