

Exeter Selected in Child Welfare Move

Geneva, Neb., Dec. 12.—The Exeter school of this county has been selected as one of 13 in Nebraska, in which demonstrations in improvement of underweight children will be made during the next few weeks.

Following physical examination of grade pupils by Miss Amy MacOwan, county nurse, and Miss Helen Locke, home economics teacher at Exeter, all children who are found to be as much as 7 per cent below normal weight will be given special supervision. By means of charts their progress under a particular diet and exercise will be noted and the results announced at the close of the year.

test. The plan is sponsored by the central division of the Red Cross society.

Wymore Reports Heavy Walnut Log Shipments

Wymore, Neb., Dec. 12.—A heavy movement of walnut logs from this part of the state is again noticed, the shipments being destined to firms at Des Moines and Kansas City. The girl died at the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Emma Toft, where she was taken when the house caught fire, and other members of the family were painfully burned. The parents, a sister, Betty, 4, and a brother all suffered injuries, but they will recover. The girl is survived by her parents and eight brothers and sisters.

Beatrice City Clerk Says Gas Is Too High

Beatrice, Neb., Dec. 12.—At a meeting of the city commissioners today City Clerk Pethoud, who recently visited Omaha and other points to ascertain the rates on gas and the cost of production, filed his report.

In the opinion of the clerk, Beatrice consumers are entitled to a cheaper rate than $1.50, the rate now in effect. However, the clerk was instructed to go more thoroughly into the investigation, to determine the fullest extent of the profit.
