

Council Bluffs Society

Married in Arizona.
Friends of Miss Alice Bonham, who formerly made Council Bluffs her home, will be interested to learn of her marriage last week to Rockwell Island of Phoenix, Ariz.

New Daughter.
Mr. and Mrs. Donald McFerron of Iopkopolis, Ill., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Monday last.

Returning for Holidays.
During this, and the coming week, trains from all sections of the country will be bringing for the holidays many girls and men from here who are attending their various institutions of learning.

Tea.
A very delightful tea, with decorations suggestive of the holiday season, was the one given on Thursday by Mrs. George Clark, honoring her daughter, Mrs. Harold Schaper of Milwaukee, Wis., who arrived last Sunday for a visit into the new year.

Entertains Club.
Mrs. Eugene Reynolds, who is here from Davenport, Ia., visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. McAtee, entertained at dinner last Thursday evening, the guests being members of a bridge club to which she belonged before her marriage.

For Mrs. Abbott.
Eight guests lunched with Mrs. S. T. McAtee at the Brandeis tea room on Friday in compliment to Mrs. Harry Abbott of Philadelphia, who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Woodbury.

Bridge Luncheon.
Covers were placed for 16 at a luncheon given on Friday by Mrs. R. Williams and Mrs. I. B. Rohrer at the home of the latter.

For Visiting Mothers.
Complimentary to Mrs. Harold Schaper of Milwaukee, Mrs. Donald Burke of Dubuque and Mrs. Eugene Reynolds of Davenport, Miss Rodna Hughes gave a luncheon of 14 covers on Monday last.

Bridge Luncheon Series.
Six tables of guests were present at a luncheon followed by bridge, over which Mrs. Josephine Lutz presided on Saturday.

Mothers and Daughters Luncheon.
A luncheon to which eight mothers and their daughters were invited was given for last Wednesday by Mrs. W. S. Keeline, as a farewell to her daughter, Mrs. Paul Burke, who departed Saturday with her small daughter, Priscilla Ann, for their home in Dubuque after a visit of some weeks in Council Bluffs.

Holiday Parties.
Replete with dances and other festive affairs will be the holiday season this year, the first of these events being scheduled for December 21, when the members of the Sigma Phi give their Christmas party, which is always a lovely event.

Very True.
Lecturer (attempting to explain the money question)—What is it, can any tell me. What is it that often destroys friendships, that can be either a blessing or an embarrassment, and that is continually circulating from hand to hand?

Of Course.
Lecturer—What is your name, please?
Applicant—Miss Clancy.
Lecturer—Of course, you don't expect me to call you Miss Clancy.
Applicant—Oh, no, ma'am. Not if you have an alarm clock.—New York Sun.

Woman of 80, in Perfect Health, Has Had Interesting Life

First Woman Law Graduate From University of Nebraska—Pioneer Settler—Suffragist and W. C. T. U. Worker.

Mrs. Alice A. Minick is a remarkable woman on many counts. She is 80 years old and in perfect possession of all her faculties, in excellent health and enjoying life as much as she ever has.

She was the first woman graduate from the law department of the University of Nebraska, completing her course in 1892.

She was the second woman to be admitted to the federal courts of the state, the fifteenth woman to appear in the Supreme Court of the United States, and the second woman to be admitted to practice in the Court of Claims.

Belva Lockwood, the only woman who ever ran for president of the United States moved Mrs. Minick's admission to the Supreme court. For 45 years, Mrs. Minick was a resident of Brownville, Neb., one of the most conspicuous of the early towns in our state. She lived through the exciting wild cat banking days there, and knew very well her neighbor, Robert W. Furnas, governor of the state from 1873 to 1877, a man outstanding in his work for the advancement of agriculture in Nebraska.

Senator Tipton, who died in Washington, D. C., was also one of the early Brownville residents. Mrs. Minick made the journey from New York to Nebraska in 1857 using all methods of travel. Her husband, John S. Minick, was a captain in the civil war a few years later, and became provost marshal general of the central district of Missouri. They reared and educated two nieces who are now in prominent educational positions.

In 1891 Mrs. Minick was sent to Scotland as delegate of the Temperance, of which organization she

State Board, League of Voters

Issues in the coming political campaign and a financial program for the Nebraska Women's League of Voters will be considered at the meeting of the state executive board and council of the league meeting Monday at 11 a. m. in the Y. W. C. A.

The board will map out the attitude of the league toward the principal issues likely to arise in the campaign and will lay plans for getting out the women's vote. It is the ambition of the League of Women Voters to help raise the women's vote from 40 per cent, as it was at the last election, to 75 per cent at the next one.

Means of raising money for the work of the state league will also be discussed. The maintenance of the two papers of the organization, The Bulletin and The Intelligent Voter, will be taken up.

Among the officers who are expected at the meeting are Mrs. W. LeRoy Davis, Lincoln, president of the Nebraska League of Women Voters; Mrs. J. P. Senning, Lincoln, vice president; Mrs. Charles Dietrich, Hastings, second vice president; Mrs. Carl Newton, Lincoln, treasurer; Miss May Gund, Lincoln; Mrs. John Sebree and Mrs. Jennie Calfas, Omaha. Mrs. Gentry Waldo, Omaha, has charge of arrangements.

Kensington.
The Kensington of Eunice Temple, No. 5, Pythian Club, was entertained Thursday by Mrs. Walter Korisko, 1250 South Thirteenth street. Twenty members attended. The next meeting will be held January 10, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Bartos, 1515 South Twenty-eighth street.

Holly Camp Party.
Holly Camp, 1124, R. N. A., will give a card party Wednesday evening, December 19, at West Side hall, 4517 Leavenworth street, complimentary to members and their families.

G. F. W. C. Board Confers at Capital
Mrs. John Slaker, Hastings, general federation director of Women's Clubs of Nebraska, will represent the state at the national meeting of the board of directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, headquarters, Washington, D. C., January 8 to 10. Mrs. Paul Perryman, state president of the federation, is invited as a sitting-in member.

Two Omaha women, Mrs. F. H. Cole, member of the national good service reform committee, and Mrs. Myrtle Mason, member of the national publicity committee, also received this week invitations to attend. All members of the board and state presidents are asked to stay after the conference as delegates to a "varnished" appearance. They are of poor quality.

Artist - Designer Emphasizes the Silhouette

Leon Bakst, the artist and designer, who appears before the Fine Arts society, January 10 at the Brandeis theater, is also a delightful writer, as shown in a series of articles appearing in Vogue. Speaking strictly as a designer, he says: "It has been my singular good fortune to observe my costumes, not only on the somewhat inexpensive shoulders of the mannequins, but worn by Rejane, Ida Rubenstein, Pavlova, Karsavina, Kousnetzoff, Cecile Sorel and Simone when they appeared in them to thrill the hearts of thousands.

"It has long since been shown that the seeming caprices of feminine fashions are due to efforts to reveal the beauties and conceal the defects to which humanity is heir, and it is the same end, exactly, which I attempt to accomplish by means of a union of art with the technical science of line, of color, and of texture.

In designing a woman's costume, the first point to consider and the most important, is the silhouette. In the art of costumeing it is the main essential. If one can attain the correct silhouette the battle is won; the rest is but a trifling matter of technical artifice, artistic arrangement of color, a clever coliffour and a suitable makeup."

Chopped pimientos, chopped celery and chopped olives all vary plain mayonnaise nicely.
