

THE IDEAL XMAS GIFT.

Let's dream of the IDEAL Christmas gift. I'm dreaming of a gift used and loved by men and women, the young folks and children. I'm dreaming of a gift that could MULTIPLY ITSELF THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FIVE TIMES, so that I could mail a reminder of my love EVERY day during the coming year.

I'm dreaming of a gift that would arrive Christmas day and every day in 1924, but one that would "mail itself"—'cause I hate to wrap bundles.

I'm dreaming of a gift that would bring cheer and freshness, delight and entertainment—and contain sound information that would reflect my own thoughtfulness.

I'm dreaming of a truly big gift that is sensible in price. To mail a gift 365 times would cost in postage alone more than I choose to spend. As I'm dreaming, I'll imagine this ideal reappearing gift as not costing over five or six dollars.
