During the past year, Creighton university medical clinic has cared for 7,000 patients, who made 22,000 trips to the clinic. What percentage received examination and treatment free is hard to determine. A fee of 25 cents is usually charged when the patient can afford it. Dr. J. R. Kleyla has the direct supervision of the clinic. The laboratories are under the direction of Dean Herman von Schulte. Should those who visit the clinic need social or economic assistance, the various societies who care for this class are notified. For the kiddies there are highly trained experts in orthopedics and a nurse from the Visiting Nurse association constantly in attendance. Working on individual needs discovered in the clinic, are St. Joseph hospital, Visiting Nurse association, school nurses, and through each of these the various social agencies of the city. More than $14,500,000 was spent in Paris last year for amusements.

Objections to Sale to Eppley Are Filed

Lincoln, Dec. 20.—Objections to the sale of the Nebraska Hotel company to Eugene Eppley of Omaha today were filed with Referee in Bankruptcy McClenahan by stockholders and minority directors of the company.

Among the signatories to the objections were Rome Miller of Omaha and J. H. Gore and H. L. Lohmeyer, the last two of which are now serving jail sentences for having used the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of stock in the company. Miller is attempting to obtain the purported purchase of $25,000 stock of the Interstate Hotel company and declares he will be a creditor no matter what ruling may be made on Eppley's latest offer of $237,500 for the hotel companies. The minority directors and stockholders maintain Eppley's offer is too low. A final hearing will be held here tomorrow. If baby continually pulls the ties out of his booties, tack them securely to the back of the bottle and the trick cannot be done.
