BEATRICE—Blitting-Norman post, American legion, held a largely attended meeting in the chamber of commerce rooms and installed officers for the coming year. Charles V. Taylor of Lincoln, state commander, was present and gave an inspiring talk. Plans for launching a membership drive were discussed and decided upon.

BLOOMFIELD—Entries for the cribbage tournament to be staged at the city hall December 28 indicate that at least 50 players will participate. A big oyster supper will be served at the close of the tournament, losers being obliged to pay expenses.

NEBRASKA CITY—A Coolidge for President club was organized at the courthouse, with Judge Paul Jessen, president, and L. F. Jackson, secretary.

WYMORE—The hardware store conducted by C. J. Werner for 10 years has been sold to Roy Howe of Barnston.

BEATRICE—About 25 carloads of walnut logs have been shipped from Gage county the last few weeks, to Kansas City and Des Moines, to be used in making furniture.

WYMORE—The Dodge Bros., and Essex automobile salesrooms operated on Main street here for the last four years by R. G. Lipscomb and brother, has been sold to Merle P. Briggs, of Summerfield, Kan. The change will be made next week. Mr. Lipscomb has not announced whether he will re-enter business in another line in Wymore.

BEATRICE—At the annual meeting of the Beatrice Kiwanis club, County Judge Fred Messmore was elected president for the coming year. Other officers chosen were vice president, Dr. C. A. Spellman; treasurer, F. H. Howey; district trustee, Dr. C. P. Fall; directors, Fred Darspr, C. L. Aller, J. C. Douthitt, Fred Klein, J. H. Kearnes and E. F. Kimmery.

BEATRICE—At the farm sale of Harley Trump near Holmesville, horses sold for about $75 a head and milk cows for $50 a head. Farm machinery was in demand and brought good prices. Mr. Trump and family soon will leave for Colorado where they expect to make their home for the present.

ARNOLD—Maxine, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hoffman of Arnold, turned her ankle and fell on her way home from school, striking her head on the sharp edge of her dinner pail and cutting a gash above the eye. Two stitches were required to close the wound.

TABLE ROCK—Member of the Pawnee County Livestock Breeders' association and wives enjoyed a banquet and meeting recently at the Methodist church in Pawnee City. About 100 were present. Following the banquet a program was given. Those taking part were: J. C. Irwin, Mgs. Fred Woods, George M. Miller, F. A. Sloan and Boyd Rist, county agent of Gage county. Officers elected for the coming year are: President, F. A. Sloan, Burchard; vice president, Frank Deweber, Pawnee City; secretary, A. J. Niles, Pawnee City; treasurer, J. C. Irwin, Pawnee City; executive committee, M. J. Donahue, Burchard; W. W. Sautz, Burchard; Chris Lionberger, Humboldt; A. J.
