Inmates of Industrial Home Hurl Bricks and Stones at Officials—Protest Return of Whippings.

Delaware, O., Dec. 29.—Disorders among the inmates at the girls' industrial school near here, which started with a concerted effort at the dinner hour last evening, continued unabated today despite the presence of Sheriff Fred Harter and a force of deputies.

Bedlam continued in almost every cottage at the school, while the assembly hall, where 50 nurgents were under guard, was described as an "inferno."

The girls continued to shout hysterically, tear their clothes and attempt to wreck furniture and break windows. Although the main force of the outbreak was spent last night, the disorders continued throughout the night and into this afternoon.

No Counterfeit $10 Bills Here

Flood of Bad Notes Has Not Yet Appeared in Omaha.

Omaha, so far, has escaped the flood of counterfeit $10 federal reserve notes which has been pouring into Chicago, New York, Boston and Galveston, according to Dave Dickinson, federal secret service man.

He received warning to be on the lookout for the appearance of the bogus notes here during the holiday season, he said, but so far as he has learned none of them was passed in Omaha.

A Queer World

Two Women Allege Beauty Lost by Work of Dentist and Specialist in Pul- chritude—Sue for $100,000.

New York, Dec. 29.—Alleging loss of beauty, two women filed damage suits totalling $100,000 against a dentist and a beauty doctor.

Miss Frieda Rubin charged that when she went to Dr. James F. Hasbrouck and asked him to extract two lower molars, he pulled two upper ones, changed the contour of her face and damaged her appearance to the extent of $50,000.

Mrs. Francis Simon charged that Dr. Walter J. Highman in removing blemishes from her face left worse ones, in the form of pits. She also demands $50,000.

Latest Surgical Fad.

London, Dec. 29.—The removal of the gall bladder is the latest surgical fad in Britain.

Sir Edward Treves, who set the fashion for removal of the appendix, died in Switzerland recently because a surgeon summoned from London did not arrive in time to remove the gall bladder.

Now the surgeons are generally recommending the operation, regardless of any apparent necessity.

Would Be Barred.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—If Christ tried to come to Chicago, he would not be in, Israel Zangwill, Jewish author, said on arrival here on a tour of the country.

"Probably, with your immigration laws, he wouldn't even get into the country," added the visitor.

Mr. Zangwill described himself as "reemigrating" here from a visit to New York.

Scientists declare there are 92 elements of which 87 have been discovered.

Gasoline Goes Up 2 Cents Here

Automobile Fuel to Cost 16 1-4 Cents Per Gallon Sunday.

Gasoline at Standard Oil filling stations in Omaha will take a jump of 2 cents today.

The announcement was made Saturday morning by H. W. Pierpont, secretary of the company in Omaha.

The price of gasoline at tank wagons will take a similar increase, going from 12 1/4 to 14 1/4 cents a gallon. The price at filling stations will become 16 1/4.

Gasoline at Nicholas Oil corporation's filling stations will follow the increase of the Standard Oil, according to Stockton Heath of the Omaha office.

The increase, according to Mr. Heath, is due to the increase in the price of crude oil.

The price of gasoline first was boosted by the Standard Oil company of Indiana Friday and Omaha officials then had received no intimation of an increase in Omaha, although they admitted that the price in Omaha ordinarily followed the price in Indiana.

No increase had been considered by the Sinclair Oil company office here, it was said, but the crude oil market has shown such a decided tendency to strengthen that it was considered likely by officials that Sinclair would follow the lead of the Standard.

Rookie Cop Flashes Irate Barber Holds Sack for His Fee Badge in Lieu of Coin

He was a well-known copper, well known by his intimate friends, and he had just been sworn in. They had given him a nice shiny badge and a nice blue uniform in appreciation. What the cat brought in was certainly no relation of his.

Shortly after taking office he went into a barber shop and had a shave, haircut and shampoo administered. Then he sauntered to the door.

"Six bits," urged the clipper chauffeur displaying a pink palm expectantly.

The officer of the law threw open his coat displaying his shield.

"What does that mean?" remarked the man.

"Oh, I'm a policeman, didn't you see my star?"

Further discussion was heated. Finally the pride of the force walked out without delivering remuneration, the threat of notification of the chief of police ringing in his ears.

The same copper it is said flashes his badge whenever the collection plate passes him in church.

Burgess-Nash as Public Utility

Growth of Store Is Traceable to the Policies Adopted.

Public interest in the Burgess-Nash store is traceable to the disclosures from time to time, of the progress of the store in the business world and of the policies on which its success has been founded. Omaha has come to feel that the Burgess-Nash company is more than a business conducted for private gain. It thinks of it now as a feature of Omaha business life, whose policy is aiding the city's growth by the friends it is making for Omaha.

And when national trade and business publications have employed experts to study and write about the success of the Burgess-Nash company in the various branches of its business, the prestige of Omaha throughout the whole nation, has increased.

The store as a semi-public utility is the attitude of the employees and J. F. Dalley, general manager.

That the store should increase its volume of business within 12 months by more than 40 per cent was an accurate indication that the public regarded it as a favorite place in which to shop.

Bomb Kills Two at Jewish Dance

Budapest, Dec. 29.—A bomb was hurled yesterday among the crowded dancers at a Jewish women's charity ball in Chrongrad, Southern Hungary, killing two women and wounding 50. The bombers, who tossed their missile through a window, are suspected of being members of the anti-semitic "Awakening Magars association."

After the explosion the crowd within the building rushed to the door. In the panic that resulted many were trampled under foot and injured. The little town has no hospital and few doctors and consequently the condition of the wounded has become precarious through lack of proper attention. It is impossible to send aid from the outside as the railroads are blocked with snow.

Religious Census Planned.

Shenandoah, Va., Dec. 29.—The ministerial association of Shenandoah has invited the Rev. Frank Schroeder of Dubuque, an expert in the matter of taking a religious census, to visit Shenandoah and begin a religious census. The inventory will be taken at the start of the new year. Mr. Schroeder will stress Sunday school work and an effort will be made by the Sunday schools to get every child interested.

Encore Ban on Galli Curci Off

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Amelita Galli-Curci is to make her farewell appearance with the Chicago Civic Opera company here on the night of January 4, when in honor of the great coloratura soprano the management will discard the old rule prohibiting encores. A host of her friends accord the singer a great showing of their devotion.

A decision of Mme. Galli-Curci to leave the Chicago opera came after the management refused to accede to her wishes to make her first appearance of the season in "Donorah." Instead they insisted that she sing in "Lakme." This attitude she declared to be a lack of consideration for her feelings which she could not overlook. Her final performance is in "Romeo and Juliet," with Charles Hackett, American tenor, as Romeo.

Winter Cold Hits Great Lakes Area

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Winter stretched his long blue fingers down from the northwest today and the great lakes region, and intervening territory shivered, stamped its feet and blew gusty steaming breaths.

Eight below zero at Fargo, N. D., was accompanied by eight inches of snow, five of which fell in the night. Winnipeg had five below. Minnesota was somewhat warmer, with 13 above, and skies clear.

Chicago thought 27 above chilly enough, the coldest mark since last February.

In the west, weather was mild, with Denver enjoying it clear and cool, 50 above. South of Chicago the cold wave thawed itself out, becoming mild before Kansas City was reached.

Woman Shot in Back.

Port Smith, Ark., Dec. 29.—Shot in the back with a shotgun and slung about the head, the body of Mrs. Robert Latimer, 26, was found in her home in the Cletcher community, five miles from Van Buren, late yesterday by a neighbor who went to the Latimer home to pay Mrs. Latimer a visit.

Will Bettis, who lived near the Latimer home, was placed in jail here last night and charged with murder in connection with the death of the woman. Bettis was arrested soon after Mrs. Latimer's body was found. The woman was unconscious when the neighbor found her alone in her home. She died a short time later.

Tram Fare Case Soon.

Lincoln, Dec. 29.—The state railway commission Friday designated January 14 as the date for hearing the application of the Lincoln Traction company for permission to raise cash fares from 8 cents to 10 cents.

At the same time it announced it would hear whatever the company has to say about the valuation placed on the property by the commission. The company contends the commission has placed too low a valuation from the standpoint of reproduction costs. The commission valuation is about $2,500,000.

Real Estate Company Moves to New Office

Offices of the Benson and Garrett company have been moved from the Arthur building to a ground floor location in the Lyric building.

Arizona Murder Suspect Former Convict, Belief

Globe, Ariz., Dec. 28.—Discovery of a letter today among the effects of W. B. Ward, porter, charged with the murder early Wednesday morning of Ted Grosh, Arizona university student, apparently indicate he formerly had been a convict in the Oklahoma state penitentiary, officers said. Addressing Ward as "My old pal" the writer told various items of news about the penitentiary, using the words "mine" and "were here," according to officers.

Maxine McNelly, 19, who was wounded by the slayer of Grosh, is recovering in a hospital. Grosh and the girl, according to the latter's story, were riding in an automobile north of Globe when they were attacked.

Phelan & Shirley of Omaha Built Military Highway

The work was begun a year ago last June and completed last May.

Dawes Sails.

New York, Dec. 29.—Brigadier General Charles J. Dawes, former director of the United States budget, and Owen D. Young, chairman of the board of General Electric company and of the Radio Corporation of America, two of the three Americans who have been invited by the inter-allied reparations commission to sit as members of its committee to consider means of balancing the German budget, sail today on the America for Europe.

They will be present when the committee meets January 14, in Paris, where they will be unofficial representatives of the United States but will act in an official capacity on the committee. Henry M. Robinson, Los Angeles, Cal., banker and third American delegate, will join them abroad.

U. S. Radio Heard in England

London, Dec. 29.—Success attended attempts last night to hear throughout Britain a program broadcasting from America. The North Downs receiving station in the county of Kent, notwithstanding much atmospheric disturbance, received distinctly a program from East Pittsburgh, which included organ and piano solos and a lecture to boys scouts.

The program came through with remarkable clarity, the lecturer's voice being heard especially well and the station at North Downs promptly relayed it to all the broadcasting stations of the British Isles. Hundreds of owners of crystal sets reported they heard it clearly.

Coolidge to Stay Home.

Washington, Dec. 29.—President Coolidge will make no trips out of Washington for at least another month or two, it was announced yesterday at the White House. Several invitations have been received recently from New York and other cities, but the president has decided he will accept none of them.

Koretz Remembers Friends.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—Leo Koretz, who induced relatives and wealthy friends to invest $5,000,000 in Panama, alligator swamps which they thought were gushing with oil, and then skipped, was not content with taking the money, but had to have the last word as well, his victims told the authorities yesterday.

In the mails yesterday scores of those who lost money in investments with Koretz, received neatly engraved New Year's cards signed with Koretz's name.

Some of the investors scouted the theory the cards, mailed in Chicago, were sent by a practical joker, declaring the signatures were genuine. The authorities, however, turned their attention to California after a report that a man resembling Koretz had been seen in San Francisco.

Man in Pen Innocent.

Paris, Dec. 29.—Louis Danval, a 78-year-old druggist, pardoned in 1902 after serving 24 years of a life sentence imposed in 1878 after he was found guilty of poisoning his wife, and who was given amnesty in 1919 because his two sons were killed in the war, had his name cleared completely yesterday by action of the court of cassation.

Danval showed through experts that the scientific evidence on which he was convicted was erroneous, and that his wife died of a kidney disease of which nothing was known at the time. The court quashed the old conviction, granting him a pension of 12,000 francs and damages amounting to 20,000 francs.

"Do You Own Any Real Estate?"

How many times have you had that question shot at you when you approached some credit manager for extended credit—or your banker, for a loan to cover an unexpected emergency?

Were you prepared to answer "Yes?"

The purchase of real estate is the first step toward financial independence. The worker who owns his home is much less concerned about work becoming slack than the one who doesn't. At the grocery store, at the clothing store, at the department store—everywhere where credit is sought—home owners are given preference.

Make a start—buy a home.

The "City Real Estate" columns of The Sunday Omaha Bee are brim full of splendid home opportunities—cozy, homey places for the man of limited means—beautiful, pretentious ones for the buyer with more exacting tastes. In most cases a substantial initial payment will enable you to move in and begin living under your own roof. The balance may be paid in small monthly installments—just like rent.

The home you want—at a price that you can afford and on terms that will not pinch your pocketbook—is advertised in The Sunday Omaha Bee today.
