

SYRACUSE—More than 125 brush dams have been built in the county since the county agent staged a soil erosion and brush dam demonstration last April. Terracing work has also been done on some farms to prevent the washing away of valuable farm land. DAKOTA CITY—Large crowds attended the moving picture show staged by the farm bureau in four places in Dakota county. The movie machine was recently purchased by the farm bureau for its meetings and entertainments. An entertainment completed the program. ARLINGTON—Axel Larson, 50, a prominent farmer of Arlington, died at his home. He died on the same where his father, August Larson, 82, still lives. He is survived by his father, four children and two sisters.

Our January White Sale of Silk and Muslin Lingerie

Through months of planning for our January White Sales we have assembled a large and varied stock of lingerie of silk and muslin. Every piece was chosen with discriminating care to make sure of wearing quality as well as beauty of appearance. Care was taken, also, to make sure that every garment was full cut, nicely finished and made with good strong seams and well finished hems—the tell-tale points of underwear quality. With quality assured, we bought with determination to secure the lowest prices, and this, with the narrow margin of profit we are taking on this merchandise, assure you the best obtainable values and the lowest obtainable prices.
