W. D. McHugh, Omaha attorney for many years, who died in Chicago a few weeks ago, left an estate valued at $215,000, a dispatch from there says.

His will bequeaths $15,000 to his sister, Kate A. McHugh, former principal of Central High school, now retired. Most of the rest of the estate will go to his wife, son and daughter, all living in Omaha.

Henry Gund Dies.
Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.
Lincoln, Jan. 18.—Henry Gund, 84, Nebraska pioneer and prominent in state banking circles, died here yesterday of influenza after a week's illness. Mr. Gund was an organizer of the City National bank of Lincoln and was a member of the board of directors at the time of his death. He was also president of state banks at Wilber, Rosamont, Campbell, Cowles and Upland, and of the First National bank at Blue Hill.

Mr. Gund came to Nebraska in 1876, settling at Wilber, where he engaged in the grain business.

Omaha Salesman Held Up, Robbed
By Associated Press.
Grand Island, Neb., Jan. 18.—C. H. Friedman, Omaha salesman for a novelty house, was held up and robbed of $20 in cash on the Lincoln highway near Wood River. While Friedman was changing a tire a stranger came up in a light car, asked for a cigaret, was given the same together with a light, after which the stranger held him up with a gun, rifled his pockets and left.

Lineman Hurt, Seeks $50,000
Harry L. Ashton, lineman for the Blue River Power company, brought suit in district court Friday for $50,000 damages. He asserts he was badly burned about the feet and arms, while attaching high tension wires, which were to give the village of Adams, Gage county, Nebraska, its electric power. The Electric Developing company, the village of Adams and the Blue River Power company are defendants in the suit.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimpled, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of the body, constipation, take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit, liss and sane.
