

Two-Mile Walk After Shot. Belfast, Jan. 19.—James Scraghan, an American soldier, living in Cavan, walked two miles, with two bullets in his lungs, to get a doctor for his wife, who had been shot while in bed by armed raiders. He died shortly after returning home with the doctor. The raiders escaped.

Home-Grown Lettuce. Elyria, O., Jan. 13.—Lettuce, grown in her out-of-doors garden this winter, was served by Mrs. Michael Goebel, local resident, on her dinner table Christmas day. Mrs. Goebel stated that "a little care on cold nights and moderate weather and rains" made it possible to grow let tuce out of doors out of season.
