

Muny Judges Tighten Tape on Warrants

Officers Hereafter Must File Statements Setting Forth Cause Sufficient for Issuance.

Omaha municipal judges, at a special meeting, decided that the issuance of a search warrant hereafter must be based on application approved either by the chief of police or the sheriff and accompanied by a written statement setting forth such reasonable suspected conditions that will justify issuance of the warrant.

This action followed refusal by Judge R. W. Patrick, presiding judge of the municipal court, to issue to Deputy Sheriff Olat Valdemar Thestrup a search warrant on the mere statement by Thestrup that he suspected a certain premises.

Officers to whom search warrants are issued will be required to make returns within four days, instead of holding them for a month or even destroying them, according to Judge Patrick.

Sanctity of Home.

"The judges of the municipal court are absolutely in favor of law enforcement," the judge said, "and we are also determined that these laws shall be enforced according to their spirit as well as the letter, and not in violation thereof. The law contemplates the sanctity of the home, and that the home shall not be invaded without just cause."

The judge added that search warrants heretofore issued have justified in less than 50 per cent of the cases, that out of 100 issued less than 50 yielded any evidence of violation of law. The practice has been for an officer to fill out an application blank and the search warrant was issued forthwith.

Many Complaints.

"Many complaints have been received as to the manner in which these search warrants have been issued," the judge added. "The judges have discussed the situation and decided to require full compliance with the law regarding issuance of search warrants. A mere affidavit without stating facts upon which application for warrant is based, will not be considered hereafter. Nor will the warrants be issued unless O. K'd by the chief authority in charge of the law enforcement and accompanied by a written statement of the suspicious facts upon which application is based."

The chief of police and the sheriff will be required to authorize applications for warrants. Officers serving such warrants will be required to return same within four days. Subordinate law enforcement officers have obtained these warrants upon their mere statements of their suspicion, and as we have stated, the returns have not justified their statements.

Death Ends Fight of Pini Minkosky

Boston, Jan. 19.—The death of Pini Minkosky at the Beth Israel hospital yesterday ended the struggle of the famous Jewish cantor and composer for his life. In the revolution of 1917 his fortune was confiscated, his home destroyed and he was forced to flee to Paris with his family. They lived in comparative poverty until the cantor determined to seek a new fortune in America. Three months ago he landed in Boston. His ability was recognized at once and he had no difficulty in obtaining engagements in synagogues. Recently he had cabled enough money to his wife and children to enable them to join him here. He had also completed a history of Jewish prayers and chants and had sent it to Berlin where it was ready for publication.

Ten years ago Minkosky was known throughout Europe as the leading cantor in the largest synagogue in Europe, as a composer of ecclesiastical music and as an authority on the history of Hebrew prayers and chants. He was living happily with his wife and children in a pleasant home in Odessa. In the revolution of 1917 his fortune was confiscated, his home destroyed and he was forced to flee to Paris with his family. They lived in comparative poverty until the cantor determined to seek a new fortune in America. Three months ago he landed in Boston. His ability was recognized at once and he had no difficulty in obtaining engagements in synagogues. Recently he had cabled enough money to his wife and children to enable them to join him here. He had also completed a history of Jewish prayers and chants and had sent it to Berlin where it was ready for publication.

Church Too Sacred for Case.

Los Angeles, Jan. 19.—When two attorneys, both clergymen's sons, yesterday objected to appearing in a divorce case in the Broadway Christian church, which is being used as a temporary court room, Judge F. M. Janison, commended their stand, and announced that the case would be transferred to another department.

The two attorneys, E. Marlon Crawford and Wilbert C. Hamilton, declared that the "church to them was a house of prayer and worship" and they objected to trying a divorce action in "such sacred precincts."

Omaha Police to Have New Summer Uniform

Lloyd Bolan

Here is Detective Lloyd Bolan, in midwinter weather, wearing the new regulation summer uniform of the Omaha police department, just to show how it looks.

All patrolmen next summer will wear these snappy serge blouses, put out for young men and men who stay young. Traffic officers and pill box officers will wear similar blouses, except that they will be khaki instead of blue.

They were adopted recently by the Kansas City police and found to be cooler than the regulation uniform ordinarily worn. They cost $7.95 apiece, and each patrolman will be required to have two.

Man Bound Over on Mail Charge

W. C. Coates of Elk River, Minn., who was arrested in Kearney, Neb., last week on a charge of aiding Adrian McDermott in passing stolen money orders, was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Smedley D. Butler, director of public safety, Saturday morning and bound over to the general grand jury on $1,000 bond.

Coates, who claims he picked up McDermott while driving from Sioux City to Omaha, lived with McDermott for more than a week at the Hill hotel. McDermott paid all the expenses of the trip and the stay in Omaha, Coates declared. McDermott was arrested December 14 and was later adjudged insane. He was returned to Iowa in custody of his father. The money orders in McDermott's possession were stolen from the postoffice at Arthur, Ia., with stamp pad and stamp.

Election Suit Answer Filed

W. D. McHugh, Jr., Douglas county election commissioner, Saturday filed answer in district court to the suit brought Friday by Bessie E. Todd, asking that a writ of mandamus issue instructing McHugh to place her name on the ballot as a candidate for the county central committee from her precinct.

In his answer McHugh alleges that the state statutes prevent him from so doing.

No Hardship for Family, Promise

Utilities District Manager Says House Needed for Present Employees.

General Manager Theodore A. Lelsen of the Metropolitan Utilities district expressed his assurance Saturday that no drastic action will be taken which would work a physical hardship on Mrs. H. M. Whitty and her three children, who occupy a house at 2852 Bridge street, owned by the utilities district.

Notice from the utilities district to Mrs. Whitty to vacate by January 19 was brought to the attention of John N. Baldwin, public defender, who stated yesterday he would resist any summary action in the case. "I had no knowledge of the matter until I saw the statements in the papers yesterday," Lelsen said. "The proceedings were started before I took charge. Whitty was employed by the utilities district as crane engineer about two years ago. A few months after being employed he was arrested, convicted and sent to the penitentiary, his wife remaining in the house which he had taken when first employed."

Later the house was said to be needed for an employee of the district, as these houses are rented to employees only. In October the occupancy of this house by Mrs. Whitty was brought to the attention of Senator R. B. Howell, the former general manager, and a notice was sent to Mrs. Whitty on November 20, requesting her to give possession of the house on or before January 2. On January 14 a second notice was sent requesting her to give possession on or before January 19.

"It has not been a question of non-payment of rent, but of reserving these houses for the use of the employees in order to have them near the plant in case of emergency."

Butler Stages Another Drive

Philadelphia, Jan. 19.—After checking up the results of his second 48-hour drive against lawlessness, Brig. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, director of public safety, started shortly before midnight on a personal tour of inspection of the various police districts "to keep the 4,200 policemen and their commanders on their toes." The tour kept him on the go throughout the early morning hours and upon his conclusion he expressed himself as well pleased with conditions.

Police records showed a total of more than 200 arrests for various offenses, including 67 for traffic violations. Nearly 200 prisoners were taken in raids on billiard and pool rooms, speak easies and stores said to be operating as blinds for gamblers.

Ten men were taken from a pool and billiard room in the center of the city owned by Lew Tender, Philadelphia's well known lightweight boxer.

Wife Asks Court for $75 Alimony

Mrs. Elma S. Nilsson, whose suit against her husband, Johannes Nilsson, for separate maintenance is pending, applied to district court Saturday to grant her $75 a month until the suit is decided.

The Nilssons were married in 1883 and have lived in Nebraska for 35 years. Mrs. Nilsson charges that her husband deserted her. Attorneys for her husband have asked that the separate maintenance suit be vacated.

A Nebraskan in Washington

By F. C. POWELL, Washington Correspondent The Omaha Bee. One Nebraskan who came to Washington and mopped up in a single day is Joe Stecher, former heavyweight wrestling champion from Dodge, Neb. Stecher with those almost human legs put his man down in 15 and 5 minutes, respectively. The crowd went wild over Stecher's work.

It was hard to believe that the clean cut young fellow without a mark on his body was one of the peers in the land of cauliflower ears. One of the facts which the press emphasized was that Stecher was absolutely devoid of "rough stuff," so often seen on the mat in Washington, one of the real wrestling cities of the country.

The man pitted against Stecher was introduced as a former bodyguard of the czar. As Stecher lost they sneered. They are wined and dined and anything they say to the effect that the city needs more money is headlined on page one of the Washington newspapers.

Well, it's a great deal like Lincoln. Those on the appropriation committee for large appropriations for state institutions at Lincoln instantly become the idol of the Lincoln newspapers.

The bets in the Nebraska delegation are 2 to 1 that Jerry Howard didn't have that gun loaded.

Congressman Ashton C. Shallenbarger, a member of the interstate commerce committee, attended all open meetings of the railroad executives in Washington. "It was depressing," he said. "They never talked anything that could be construed as relief and added revenues seemed to be their goal at all times."

Shallenbarger has introduced three bills. One is to repeal the so-called guarantee clause in the Esch-Cummins bill, another wipes out the interstate commerce committee and a third abolishes the labor board. Shallenbarger isn't averse to going back to state control of railroad rates.

Congressman M. O. McLaughlin announced this week he intended to file as a candidate for reelection. A number of the congressman's friends have urged him to get into the senatorial race. "I feel that I can do more good in the house as I am now third ranking member of the house agricultural committee," McLaughlin has replied to their suggestions.

Water Too Hard, Women Complain

Utilities District Manager Promises to See What He Can Do About It.

Water distributed by Omaha's municipal plant is hard; in fact, much harder than the new general manager, Theodore A. Lelsen, had reason to believe. This condition was brought to the general manager's attention this morning by Mrs. Philip Potter, Mrs. R. W. Shepard and Mrs. E. V. Shaylor, representing the Omaha Women's club. Mr. Lelsen conferred for one hour with the visitors, who explained that the hardness of city water increases the annual soap bill of the housewives.

Cut Soap Bill.

Based on the experience of Columbus, Ia., the softening of the city water here would save the housewives approximately $150,000 a year through a diminution of the expense of soap and water-softening preparations.

NEWER FORM OF OIL ENDS RHEUMATIC PAINS

Of 2,783 Cases Less Than 3 in 100 Are Reported to Have Failed to Get Relief

From Germany, which gave to the world these two great pain relievers, Aspirin for headache pain and Novocain for painless dentistry, comes now of another great discovery of a newer form of oil which is bringing quick relief from the pain of rheumatism in a remarkable percentage of cases where all other methods had failed.

These German scientists found that rheumatism, in an enormous number of cases, is due to an internal infection such as poisonous pus in a dead tooth or an infected tonsil, or in the sinuses. These poisons being absorbed by the blood are carried to the joints and muscles, where they set up inflammation and intense pain. Sometimes these infections cause rheumatism, in other cases neuritis, neuralgia or gout.

Once the cause of the trouble was known, these German scientists worked in perfect harmony, and succeeded in directing to the tortured nerves and inflamed tissue of the joints and muscles themselves and neutralize these poisons in much the same way that bicarbonate of soda or mucic acid neutralizes an acid stomach. Often even in the most severe and stubborn cases, inflammation, swelling and pain quickly disappear with the very first application.

So astounding have been the results from this remarkable oil that the American distributors have authorized local druggists to lend you a bottle for trial with their personal written guarantee. You simply deposit the price with him as evidence of good faith. Then if you do not get immediate relief, simply return the bottle and every penny of your deposit will be instantly refunded. Ask for the oil by name—Ruhier Oil. Beware of all good druggists in this city, such as Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., Beaton Drug Co., Marzetti Drug Co., Barney Dugan Drug Co., United Dispensary, Drug Co., Saxton Drug Co., Pope Drug Co. and Hixson Drug Co.

NOTE: The written guarantee of relief or money back on Ruhier Oil is especially designed for those people who have devoted for years without results. We do not want to see one penny of your money unless Ruhier Oil gives you relief from pain.

MRS. YOUNG ENTHUSIASTIC

Cannot Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Enough. Sick Women Read This Letter

Charleston, S. C.—"I was completely run-down and not able to do my house work. I just drugged myself around and did not get any energy enough to get up when I sat down. I read advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in your books and learned about it. I got my first bottle. I continued to take it for some time, and now I am doing all my own work, even washing and ironing, and never felt better in my life. I tell all my friends that the change in my health is due to but one thing and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I cannot praise it enough."—Mrs. ANNE YOUNG, 15 Amherst St., Charleston, S. C.

The reason for such a letter from Mrs. Young is apparent. She got well and is grateful. Recently a nationwide canvass of women purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was made, and 98 out of 100 reported that they received benefit from taking it.

Because the Vegetable Compound has been helping other women is reason why it should help you.
