

Wife, 73, Bakes Cake for Own Golden Wedding

Couple Wed at Fremont, Ind., Celebrate Anniversary at Fremont, Neb., Present Home.

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Noyes of Fremont celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday, and as a special feature of the occasion, Mrs. Noyes, though 73, baked a cake for the party.

Mr. Noyes, who is 76, and his wife were married in Fremont, Ind., and by a peculiar coincidence, are celebrating their 50th anniversary in a town of the same name, though in a different state. Two years before their marriage, Noyes came to Dodge county and took a homestead near Scribner. Returning with his bride, the Noyes resided on the homestead for 24 years.

Several Expected to Seek Norfolk Postmaster Job

Norfolk, Neb., Jan. 22.—There will be numerous candidates for the Norfolk postmastership, which is now vacant, when the time comes for applicants to file. Two applicants already have indicated they will ask for the position. One is H. L. Wickman, who was formerly assistant postmaster, and the other is Mrs. Jean Whitney, the republican woman leader in the Third congressional district.

Mrs. Nesbit Buried.

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 22.—Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Nesbit, 95, the oldest inmate of the Old People's home in Omaha, who died Saturday, were held in Fremont at Ridge cemetery. Mrs. Nesbit, who entered the home of her own volition, was a resident of Fremont for 20 years prior to her entrance into the Omaha institution.

"He who helpeth the poor—Helps three—Himself, the suffering ones and me."

Thus speaks the old verse, and thousands know it is true. Those who have contributed to The Omaha Bee's Free Shoe Fund understand the blessedness of giving, the happy feeling that lingers in the heart.

Right now there are poor boys and girls waking up each morning and looking forward hopefully to the time when there will be money in the fund to buy shoes for them. They have no fathers and their mothers are sorely pressed to earn enough for food and shelter.

To Give Away Bibles.

New York, Jan. 22.—President Coolidge has accepted the honorary presidency of a business men's committee soon to be incorporated as the Foundation for the Free Distribution of the American Bible, Dr. Rufus W. Miller, secretary of the committee, said. The committee expects to take over the copyright of the American version of the Bible, now held by a private concern, Dr. Miller said.

Minneapolis Mayor Wed in New York

New York, Jan. 22.—Mayor George E. Leach, of Minneapolis, and Miss Anita Churcher, of La Jolla, Cal., were married this afternoon at the Marble collegiate church by Dr. Daniel A. Poling. The ceremony was simple, though having a martial air.

Mayor Leach wore his uniform as colonel of the 151st Field Artillery, Miss Churcher her Y. M. C. A. uniform. It was while they were in service during the war that the couple met. Mayor Leach has since been made a brigadier general, but prefers to be called colonel.
