

BURGESS BEDTIME STORIES

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Danny and Nanny Have Two Homes. The broken wing. It was so good to be there that for two or three days they were perfectly happy. Trader the Wood Rat came over to see them every night. Sometimes there were other visitors, but none save Trader that dared climb up in that man-bird's nest. Once they saw Yowler the Bob Cat staring at it with eyes filled with curiosity and suspicion. He walked around it twice, but he was careful to keep at a distance. But one morning, after having been out all night, they were awakened by strange noises. They heard the voices of men. They peeped out. Their friend the aviator had returned, and with him were other men. They came straight to the great man-bird and began looking it over very carefully. Danny and Nanny watched their chance and when no one was looking climbed out and hid in the grass where they could watch what went on.

Those men went to work on the great man-bird. They began taking it apart. Danny and Nanny watched until they were sure that those men were going to stay right there. They didn't dare go back to their nest in the great man-bird.

"There is only one thing to do," said Danny, "and that is to go back to that other home of ours under the stump. Perhaps those two-legged creatures will go away after a while." So Danny and Nanny went back to the home under the stump at the edge of the garden. They were thankful to have a home to go to, but at the same time they couldn't bear to think of giving up their home in that great man-bird. All day, whenever they were awake, they heard voices of men and the noise of hammering. But when night came and darkness settled down with a suddenness with which it always falls in the Sunny South, all noise ceased.

Finally Danny and Nanny ventured to go back where they could see that great man-bird. It was moonlight then, and they saw at once that the great man-bird was alone. There was no one about. Little by little they crept nearer. Finally they ventured up into it. Their nest in the little cupboard was undisturbed. As soon as they found this out they went out

North, and so that great man-bird seemed more like home to them than any home they could make in this strange land of the Sunny South. Every night Trader the Wood Rat visited them and took a lively interest in looking at everything that had been done to that man-bird during the day.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, flatulence, and other ailments with calomel. They take hold of the bowels and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids or calomel. It is best to take calomel. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dizziness" and that lacerating come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "heavy" and "bawky." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

CURED HIS RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that helped and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a contractor. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation. If you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 184 K. Merced Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the weary and danger of an operation.

THIS BRIGHT BABY GIRL

Brought Joy to Home. Mrs. Price's Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scotat, Pa.—"I never felt like working, and when I would try to do any work standing on my feet, I would just drag around all day long. At times I would have terrible pains and would be in bed three or four days. I was in this condition about a year when I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the papers. I had heard different women say it was good for women's troubles, and my aunt thought it would help me as it had helped her. So I took the Vegetable Compound and it brought things right, and I was in good shape before I became a mother again. I believe it helps at birth, too, as with both my other babies I suffered a great deal more than with this one. I thank you a thousand times for the good your medicine has done me."—Mrs. ROBERT PRICE, Scotat, Pa. Lockhaven, Pa. In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use.
