Ah Tak, Accused of Attempt to Smuggle 48 Mah Jong Sets Into U.S., Says They Were for Bad Luck at Sea.

Nothing to Live For.

St. Louis, Jan. 31.—Jakey, a goose, who took his whisky straight and washed it down with a swig of beer in preprohibition days, is dead. was 18 years old and was owned by John Keller, former saloon proprietor. In the old days a round of drinks wasn't complete unless Jakey was in on the set up.

When Jakey had enough he would go to the shed and sleep it off. Thousands of visitors to St. Louis, it is said, have gone to St. Louis just to buy Jakey a drink.

London, Jan. 31.—British tailors, anxious to supply the new cabinet anxious to supply the new cabinet ministers with court dress for official functions, are bombarding members of the government with circulars advertising their wares. Most of these missives have found an unhonered grave in the wastebasket, and as the lowest figure quoted for Bros. and as the lowest figure quoted for a conventional court suit with knee breeches and silk stockings is £150 it is not expected the tailors will reap a big harvest.

an interview that some of his colleagues were buying court attire, but that the others would not waste their money. It was true that a suit could be hired for £5, but the minister did not fancy borrowed clothing.

New York, Jan. 30.—Ah Tak, Chinese steward on the liner Empress of Canada, paid a fine of $100 to custom authorities today for an alleged attempt to smuggle 48 mah jong sets into the United States.

Ah Tak explained that the Chinese seamen were superstitutious. When one lost heavily at the game he threw the offending set into the sea. Therefore, he added, it was necessary to carry from 50 to 100 sets aboard.
