

Gering Bank to Reopen Doors

Confidence in Future Shown by Doubling Capital of First National.

Gering, Neb., Feb. 6.—The First National bank of Gering, which closed its doors a month ago because its cash reserve was depleted, will probably reopen for business next Monday. The bank has been completely reorganized, and the capital stock increased from $25,000 to $50,000. A cash reserve of $100,000 will be provided and the larger depositors have signed agreements not to withdraw deposits for two, three and five years. This measure was taken to insure confidence, in the bank when it reopens. The new stock has all been placed in this immediate vicinity. The closing of the bank was caused by an excess of "frozen securities," the management finding it impossible to realize on paper in sufficient quantities to take care of daily withdrawals. The unanimity with which the depositors and others subscribed for the new capitalization is an evidence of the confidence reposed in the officers of the bank. "The First National bank of Gering is the oldest bank in the entire North Platte valley. Its closing down temporarily caused no excitement and did not result in a run upon any other banks in this territory."

Auringer Heads Memorial Men

Neligh Man Elected President of Monument Craftsmen at Closing Session Here.

G. W. Auringer, Neligh, was elected president of the Memorial Craftsmen of Nebraska at the closing session of the convention yesterday at Hotel Fontenelle. Other officers elected are H. J. Williams, North Platte, vice president; Ray Moon, Fairbury, secretary-treasurer. Members elected to the executive committee are Leonard Jawick, Lincoln, and J. W. Kennedy, Minden. "By co-operation members will succeed more rapidly," said K. A. Morgan, Omaha attorney, in his address. The general price of tombstones will not be increased, said J. W. Kennedy. F. E. Coatsworth, Lincoln, spoke on selling. "A man must have a clear idea what he is going to try to sell, before he can sell it for anything worth while," he stated. John McCarthy, St. Louis, spoke on "The Work of the Organization." Frank Moon, Fairbury, Neb., was appointed state representative.

Rapid City Banker Ends His Life

Rapid City, S. D., Feb. 6.—Driven for months by fear of losing his mind, Harry Wentz, mayor of Rapid City, president of the Security Savings bank, former president of the State Bankers' association and former chairman of the state democratic committee, ended his life with a 38 revolver yesterday. "People will say it's money, but it is not. I am simply afraid of losing my mind and this is the easiest way for you," said a message he left for his widow and son. "Both his personal and bank finances are said to be in good shape and he carried over $100,000 life insurance."

More Than 1,000 Poles Broken in Gage County

Beatrice, Neb., Feb. 6.—Telephone lines in nearly every direction from Beatrice are down on account of the snow and sleet storm, and it will be some days before service is restored. A farmer coming to town reported that he counted 35 poles down between Rockford and Beatrice, a distance of seven miles. Gangs of linemen are engaged in repairing the lines. It is estimated that more than 1,000 poles are down in the county.

Canning Factory May Be Built at Franklin

Franklin, Neb., Feb. 6.—The Business Men's Community club has appointed a committee to investigate the possibility of establishing a canning factory here. The action of Chairman Stasenka in thanking Congressmen Shallenberger for the introduction of a bill for a postoffice building in Franklin was endorsed but with one dissenting vote. The next meeting is set for March 3.

Kearney Votes for Municipal Light Plant

Kearney, Neb., Feb. 6.—After three weeks of a strenuous campaign, voters of Kearney declared 1,455 to 48 in favor of a bond issue of $135,000 for adding a municipal lighting utility to the water works plant and modernizing the latter with new equipment.

Choir Singing at Top of Voice Is Utterly Silent

Dubuque, Ia., Feb. 6.—A choir of 20 voices singing their loudest, with not a sound emanating from their lips, was a feature of the church services at St. Paul Lutheran church here. The singers were deaf mutes, harmonizing in the sign language, using one hand to express their voiceless music. A. J. Beyer of St. Paul, Minn., established the services for deaf mutes here and plans to establish them in a number of other Iowa cities, including Des Moines, Cedar Rapids, Waterloo and Davenport.
