Mother-Daughter Banquet at Y. W. C. A.

A very pretty affair at the Young Women's Christian association will be the Alumnae club "Mother and Daughter Banquet" Friday evening

Toasts on "Club Purposes" will be given in response to the letters forming the word "Alumnae." Speakers will be as follows: A, Lucile Candy; L. Mildred White; U. Margaret Koemke: M. Lillian Browning: N. Esther Hansen; A. Frances Axtell. and E. Louise Hatch.

A program of entertainment which ollows the toasts will open with a solo dance by Florence Zimmern and include selections by a quartet comprising Willisene Carr, Mildren Braden, Gladys Hooper and Gertrude Bernes, a duet dance by Gladys Jones and Emma Weibel, a violin solo by Rachel Jordan, a reading by Wilsene Carr, and a "cooty dance" by Dorothy Kibbee.

The committee in charge are Esther Hansen, chairman; Gladys Jones, toasts: Margaret Koemke, avors; Mildred White, hospitality; Marjorie Anderson, decorations, and Frances Axtell, place cards.

Grace Lutheran Chorus to Give Operetta.

'Princess Chrysanthemum," a Jap anese operetta in three acts, will be presented in costume at the Swedish auditorium, Sixteenth and Chicago streets, Thursday evening, February 28, by the Grace Lutheran church chorus, under the direction of Gilbert

The scene is laid in the royal court of Emperor What-for Whi, impersonated by Ernest A. Nelson. Katherine Jensen will appear in the role of Princess Chrysanthemum, attended by Mildred Wisler as To-To, Irene Carlson as Yum-Yum, Martha Witt as Du-Du, and Rose Schultz as Tu-Lip-the dreamy one. Leon T. Peterson, for several seasons a member of the Ak-Sar-Ben chorus, is the favored Prince So-Tru, while Karl Jensen takes the part of the designing Prince So-Sli. William L. Smith, as Top-Not, enjoys considerable authority in the court of the emperor, and Eugene Stevens as Saucer-Eyes, the wizard cat, rules his band of 10 sprites with a magic power. The effect of his wicked artfulness upon the heart of the princess is somewhat counteracted by Fairy Moonbeam, a role assumed by Mrs. M. H. Overbaugh, with her company of dainty, juvenile fairies, 12 in number, Supporting the cast is a picked shorus, the entire ensemble including participants. Mrs. William L. Smith is accompanist.
