

Big Attendance Is Forecast for Dairy Meeting

Nebraskans Enter Heartily Into Development of Milch Cows—Session at Lincoln on February 20.

Nebraskans have entered heartily into the spirit of dairy development and letters to J. M. Gillan of the Chamber of Commerce bring encouragement for the meeting to be held by the society at Lincoln, February 20.

Replies indicate that attendance expectations will be surpassed. "Those few who still seem to be skeptical are evidently under the impression that the Dairy Development society will begin wholesale importation of dairy cows at once," said Mr. Gillan. "That is not the case. Cows will be placed with men who are equipped to take care of them and who are willing to take care of them. We will hold to grades and pure-breeds."

Among the many who have signified their intention of attending the meeting of the society in Lincoln are John Rasmussen, Joseph Clark, Emery Peters, George Yanks and Frank Campbell of the Ravens (Neb.) Community club.

Others are S. A. Snyder, president First National bank, Fairbury; H. M. Heppeler, president Chamber of Commerce, Beatrice; H. H. McLucas, Fairbury; C. A. Smith, Tilden; Len J. Davis, Citizens State bank, Geneva; Charles A. McClellan, First National bank, York; E. C. Hixtable, Bank of Phillips, Neb.; E. L. Cobel, Silver Creek State bank; C. F. Dodge, president Fremont National bank; Ole Hansen, Orleans; Roy W. Brown, cashier Western State bank, Western; T. H. Pollock, president Farmers State bank, Plattsmouth; Edward M. Warner, Central State bank, Lincoln; F. A. Jones, Ruskin State bank; W. W. Greening, Bank of Minden; D. A. Criss, First National bank of Stuart; A. C. Minick, First National bank, Crawford and president of the State Bankers association; Stanley Maley, City National bank, Lincoln; J. A. Inks, Jr., Shelby; Eugene Dworkin, cashier, Central Nebraska bank, David City; T. A. Leadley, The Nebraska Farmer; D. C. West, Bank of Syracuse; P. J. Miller, State Bank of York; J. C. Conklin, Bank of Hubbell.

Carl Gray, chairman of the dairy committee, will head the large Omaha delegation to the meeting.

Special music by the robust junior choir of Colome, consisting of 40 voices, was a feature of the evening program. Dr. Jenkins of St. Paul and Dr. Kohlschted of Dakota Wesleyan addressed the rally.

Dakota Counties Paying Out Big Coyote Bounties

Newcastle, Neb., Feb. 11.—Probably due to the long, cold spell, large numbers of coyotes in northern Nebraska and South Dakota are making their appearance nearer the settlements. As a result, in counties where a coyote bounty is paid, many of the animals have been killed and trappers and farmers have made a nice little sum of money from this source. Several counties in South Dakota each have paid about $1,600 in coyote bounties and it is reported that in some instances a great deal more than that amount has been paid.

Weather Here Belies Groundhog's Scare

Notwithstanding the fact that Johnnie Groundhog saw his shadow on February 2, many Omahans went about their daily routine of business yesterday in light attire. The spell of warm weather seemed to have a pleasing effect on dispositions.

Not much change in temperature is the official weather forecast for Tuesday predicted by M. V. Robins, government meteorologist. Present prospects are for the continuance of fine weather, said Mr. Robins. The coldest during Sunday night was 30 above zero at 6 in the morning. It was up to 40 above yesterday noon and still rising. Low pressure in the north is the cause of the moderate weather, according to Mr. Robins.
