Joe Stecher Gets Kayoed in Wrestling Go With Mondt

Kansas City. Mo., Feb. 11 .- Joe "Toots" Mondt, Colorado cowboy wrestler, scored a knockout here last night over Joe Stecher, former heavyweight wrestling champion. It was not a boxing bout, however, and the referee awarded the decision to Stecher.

Mondt had won the first fall in one hour and 24 minutes with an armlock and the men were grappling for a second fall when the match ended prematurely.

Stecher tried for a flying scis-sors hold after about 23 minutes of rough work and appeared to have struck Mondt low. Angered, Mondt swung one to the jaw and floored his opponent. Stecher tried to rise and his brother, Anton, who acts as his manager, immediately jumed into the ring, crying "foul."

New orline of through a door without opening the door.

We have plenty of those heavy tableweights over here, but the public doesn't care to see a couple of sleepwalkers wandering around the ring.

So Jack Curley is putting all his boys on a diet and has them down to a shadow and 200 extra, That isn't much for a wrestler between meals.
