Men Who Are Making Omaha

Gilbert M. Hitchcock is a native of Omaha, born in 1859, and educated in the Omaha public schools. He studied for two years in Germany and took a law degree from Ann Arbor in 1881.

He was a strong advocate of the irrigation plans in western Nebraska from the beginning. He was prominent in the organization of the Transmississippi exposition

The matter was brought to the attention of the railway commission when the Southeastern Nebraska Telephone company failed to change the classification and the ruling followed. The matter of adjustment will be taken up immediately with the telephone company, the commission informed the board.
