

Nebraska Couple Boast 17 Living Children; Raising Family Takes Hard Work, Says Father

Here are Mr. and Mrs. Garrison B. Reeves of Cody, Neb., and the 17 offspring. All the children live within a short distance of Cody.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves were married in December, 1896. Mrs. Reeves formerly was Mary C. Rowles of Fremont county, Ia., of which county Mr. Reeves also is a native. He is 41.

The couple continued to live in Iowa until 1913, when they left Council Bluffs, with the 12 children which had already blessed their union, to take up a homestead in the Nebraska sandhills, near a rural school house.

The family lived on the homestead for four years, after which the home stead was sold, and the Cody brood was taken nearer the town of Neud, Neb., for the purpose of obtaining better school facilities. It was here, in March, 1922, that the last of the 17 children was born. Then the family moved to Cody. It was the first time Mr. and Mrs. Cody had made their home in a town since their marriage. They remained in town until September, and then moved again to a small farm southwest of Cody, where they still live.

The children in the picture are Wayne W. Reeves, 26; Mrs. T. W. Conner, 25; formerly Mammie B. Reeves, now living at Cody; Andrew J. B. Reeves, 24; Mrs. George Elvess of Cody, 22; formerly Rhoda A.

Reeves; Marjorie Alice Reeves, 20; Mrs. Delbert Ainslie, Kilgore, 20; formerly Nellie M. Reeves; Mrs. Samuel Ellis, 18, Cody, Neb.; formerly Ruby H. Reeves; Hulda L. Reeves, 17; Nina M. Reeves, 15; Harry E. Reeves, 14; Matthew B. Reeves, 13; Mrs. E. W. Reeves, 11; Wilmer E. Reeves, 9; Raymond A. Reeves, 7; Dan G. Reeves, 5; Lillian June Reeves, 4; and Mabel Maxine Reeves, 2.

The two eldest sons, Wayne W. and Andrew J. Reeves, also are married. Mr. Reeves says he has no pointers on raising a family, except that it takes lots of hard work.

"The hardest part," he said, "is when they begin leaving to make homes of their own."
