Promoters of 19th Annual Exhibit Expect Largest Crowd in History of Event to Attend.

40 Makes Are on Display

Promoters of the Omaha automo bile show, which will be opened in the Auditorium Monday afternoon at 2, are sanguine that there will be more out-of-town visitors than have attended any previous show held in this city. This will be the 19th annual motor vehicle exposition and will be open from 9:30 a. m. to 10:30 Omaha Automobile Trade association.

After the opening day the show will be ope from 9:30 a. m. to 10:30 p. m., until next Saturday, inclusive Thirty-five exhibitors will display 40 lines of passenger cars and nine lines of tractors. The achievements of the best engineering and manufacturing skill of the automobile indus try in the United States will be represented at the show in 150 models most of which will be closed cars. Plan Trade Frolic.

One of the incidental features of the show will be the fourth annual dealers' dinner and trade frolic of the Omaha Automobile Trade asso ciation, in ballroom of Hotel Fonte nelle, next Wednesday night, at 6 C. F. Kettering, who will be the speaker of the occasion, is head of the research bureau of the General Motors corporation. He is a speaker of national importance and is said to have an ability to interpret the future of the automobile interest as few mer in this country can do.

Two orchestras have been engaged to enliven the automobile show. Fri day night will be "musical night," when special features will be offered. The decoration scheme for the show this year was worked out by Cook Rettinger, who has charge of the decoration department at Burgess-Nash store. The color scheme is white and green and the lighting effects will be an improvement. The exhibit of accessories will be on the stage and trucks will be shown in the basement. bored all last night and will be busy today on the finishing touches. Exhibits were shipped last night by express from the auto show at Kansas

Four Wheel Brakes. Attendants at the show will have an opportunity to examine four wheel brakes in demonstration and also view the balloon type of tires.

Models of the Chrysler, Rollin and Flint cars will be shown here for the first time. Many factory representatives will be here and sales conferences are scheduled. A. B. Waugh, commissioner of the Omaha Automobile Trade association and manager of the automobile show, stated that reports indicate a record attendance of out of town visitors. "There will be more visitors to the show than we have ever had and I say this advisedly," Mr. Waugh as "The outlook in this auto-
