Stribling Wins by K. O.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 15.—Young Stribling, Georgia light-heavyweight tonight knocked out 'Roughhouse' Ross of Miami, Fla., after three minutes and 45 seconds of fighting. A fight to the jaw in the second end which was scheduled 10-round bout.

With the Knights of the Gloves

Billy Wells, Charley Harvey's welter-weight, is surely made of the right stuff and seems fair to make good his promise that he will be back in New York during the summer to receive the Mack Walker for the championship. Wells, who is one of the best in the country and who among others defeated Jack Malone twice, made a poor showing in his only start in the garden in which he was knocked out by Jimmie Jones, contender of Dave Shadle, and who was immediately released from his suspension in that state, which is due about the middle of March.

Norfolk-Mike Walker, world's welter-weight champion, won by K. O. over Wilkes Nelson of Brooklyn, four rounds.

Minneapolis-Fred Fulton of Minneapolis won technical knockout over Joe McCann, Newark, N. J., fourth round of scheduled 10-round.

Savannah, Ga.—Young Stribling of Savannah, Ga., won by K. O. in three minutes and 45 seconds of fighting.

Four Localities Seek Firpo-Wills Fistic Match

Some Dispute as to Motion Picture Rights of Bout—Few Minor Details to Be Settled.

New York, Feb. 16.—In dispatches from South America have stated that Luis Angel Firpo has agreed to meet Harry Wills under the promotion of a Long Island syndicate, it appears doubtful whether this really is true.

Just at present this syndicate has four locations under consideration and they would like to sign Firpo and then decide which place can offer the best inducements for signing the bout.

Like the other three sites which are being considered, a new arena will have to be built if the match is put on in Pennsylvania. The only available stadiums just at present are the ballpark teams which are both too small for a match of such magnitude.
