Washington, Feb. 16 .- The prohibition situation in Washington, for months a center of criticism and controversy, has culminated in the shooting down of a United States senator almost within the shadow of the cap-

As a result, the whole muddle of conflicting opinions, charges, explanations, denials and counter charges that have characterized efforts to enforce the prohibition laws here seems likely to have a thorough airing in

Senator Frank L. Greene of Ver mont was shot in the head last night as a car containing prohibition agents whirled out of an alley into Pennsylvania avenue in pursuit of another automobile suspected of carrying bootleggers.

Endangered by Gun Fights.

The incident was not the first in which the lives of those on the streets here have been endangered by pistol battles with bootleggers. Mad chases through the center of the city have been numerous.

The whole question has been complicated by a three-cornered row joined in by agents of the prohibition unit, officers of the intelligence division of the Treasury department and the city police. Recently police and prohibition officials engaged in a legal battle in which serious charges were made against members of both forces and several on both sides were suspended. Three deputy United States marshals now are, held unde bond on charges of conspiracy to vio late the prohibition laws.

Charges of liquor buying by high officials and ordinary citizens alike have been on the increase.
