

Secret Committee Works to Select Chamber Chief

Fear of Lobbyists Prompts Executive Committee to Withhold Names of Investigators.

Secrets, mystery, politics, all surround the appointment of a successor to J. David Larson, commissioner of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mystery in Identity.

The mystery is as to the identity of the members of the committee, the results of their investigation and the time of the publishing of their expected report.

J. David Larson has commanded the remuneration of $12,000 a year, payable monthly in installments. The successor to J. David will fare not so well, financially. The salary of the present commissioner is considered entirely too great a burden for the organization to bear.
