Peru Normal Five Maintain Lead in Conference Race

Quintet Normal Presses Bobcats Hard for Title Honors-Omaha U Holds Own.

Although closely pressed by Fred Dale's Wayne Normal tossers, Peru Normal's cage five remains at the of the state conference basket top of the state conference basket ball pile with eight wins and no dofeats. The Bobcats practically cinch. ed the title by walloping Nebraska Wesleyan, 38 to 16, in a game played at Peru last Tuesday night.

Coach Graff's goal sharks also won games from Doane college and Chadron Normal. The Crete aggregatack, 29 to 23, while the westerners were on the short end of a 33 to 17

Wayne climbed into second place by defeating Coach Will's Chadron invaders, 20 to 12. Captain Best and company cleaned up on Western on college, a nonconference team, by a 40 to 17 score, Saturday night The victory marked the 12th win of the season for the Dale quintet.

Hastings jumped from sixth to fourth position in the race by defeating Doane and Cotner on successive evenings. The Holste crew, with Poore in the leading role, sprang an offensive game that baffled the opposing quints. Hastings lost to the Bulldogs early in the season, 16 to 14 on the Bethany court. Cotner and Chadron Normal were treated roughly in their jaunts to foreign fields.
