

Alleged Passer of Counterfeit Money Identified

St. Joe Authorities Say Man Held Here After Arrest at Columbus Has Long Police Record.

James J. Keith, who is in the county jail following his arrest three weeks ago in Columbus, Neb., on a counterfeit charge, has been identified positively as one of three gun men who participated in the holdup of a soft drink parlor at St. Joseph, Mo., last May, according to information from St. Joseph police.

Keith was arrested by Traffic Officer Wiegand of Columbus after he is alleged to have passed worthless money at the American Express office there.

Federal Operative D. W. Dickinson of Omaha says federal officers have found that Keith had been arrested eight times in Kansas City in connection with bank robberies, holdups, for carrying concealed weapons and other counts, but indicated that he had succeeded in escaping conviction on any of the serious charges. Now comes the additional information of the identification of Keith by the St. Joseph police.

A letter from the chief of police of St. Joseph, Mo., states: "He (Keith) was positively identified as one of the men who held up and robbed William Scudder in a soft drink parlor at 2324 South Sixth street on May 20, 1923, in this city. His accomplices were Charles Bradley, who later was killed in Kansas City, and Wayne Edwards, who was convicted here November 2, 1923, for this job and sentenced to the Missouri state penitentiary for 12 years. We have a good case on him and in event he is turned over to this department, we believe we can convict him on this charge."

Irish Sheriff Champion at German Card Game

Columbus, Neb., Feb. 27.—A county "skat" tournament will be held here. Skat is a German card game which is being revived here. One of the unique features of the game is that the player who takes the greatest chances is the winner, rather than the one with the highest score or the best hands. The fact that Dan Kavanaugh, an Irish sheriff, won the city tournament last week, has resulted in an urge to try a tournament on a county basis.

Overheated Radiator Scalds Nebraska Tourist

Columbus, Neb., Feb. 27.—D. J. Osborne, 68, Dakota county, retired farmer, suffered scalds about the face, chest and hands when the cap of his automobile radiator blew off just before he finished unscrewing it in an effort to permit it to cool, following a drive from St. Louis to Columbus. He and his wife are on their way to spend the remainder of the winter in Texas.

Geneva Wins Debates.

Geneva, Neb., Feb. 27.—Two practice debates have been won by the Geneva high school debating team. In the debate with Nelson, the decision of the judges was 3 to 0 in favor of Geneva, and with Fairbury, 2 to 1. Two of last year's team are debating this year, with John Gaveke taking the place of Donald Warner, who was graduated from the high school last year. The question for discussion this year is "Resolved, that immigration should be further restricted."

Important to All Women Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, the result of kidney and bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be the just remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.

take precautions

With colds and influenza all too common just now, it pays to take regular preventive measures against them. Spray your nose and throat night and morning with Zonite (directions on the bottle). Prevention is always easier, better and less expensive than a cure. Zonite—the remarkable, new antiseptic—has the unique power of destroying germs without harming the delicate tissues that germs thrive on. It is several times as powerful as pure carbolic acid—yet non-irritating and absolutely non-poisonous. At your druggist.

Plans for Missouri River Bridge Ready

Pierre, S. D., Feb. 27.—Drafting of plans for the Missouri river bridge at Chamberlain will be complete this week and ready for the four week period of advertising required by law, according to J. E. Kirkham, bridge engineer. The work has been pushed steadily ahead in response to readiness of financing and other features necessary for construction operations. Mr. Kirkham declared that plans on the bridge site had aroused no uneasiness over prospects for gaining a firm footing for the bridge. The discussion about absence of a rock foundation on which to build is groundless, he said.

Ex-Indian Scout Tells of Tragedy

Skinning of White Murderer Alive Gave Rawhide Creek Name, North Declares.

Fremont, Neb., Feb. 27.—Capt. L. H. North of Columbus, pioneer Pawnee Indian scout, speaking before the Fremont Chamber of Commerce, told how Rawhide creek, east of Fremont, was given its name. The story of how Indians skinned a white man alive heretofore has been more or less of a myth. North declared that he was personally acquainted with the Pawnee chief who supervised the killing of the white man for the purpose of revenge. The details, he said, had been related to him by this chief. The white man, a tenderfoot from the east, had promised his companions "to kill the first Indian we meet." While the party of easterners were camped an Indian maiden was seen sitting on a log. The man kept his word. An Indian boy, who had witnessed the murder, carried word to the Pawnee village. The Indians approached and demanded the slayer be surrendered, with the threat of a wholesale massacre if their demands were not obeyed.

The man was surrendered. He was taken to the banks of the Rawhide creek where he was skinned alive and tortured, according to the story related to Captain North by the Indian chief.

Captain North told of many other incidents in connection with his experiences of the early days. The Pawnee council of Boy Scouts of Fremont were honor guests.

County Sunday Schools to Meet at Hebron-Friday

Hebron, Neb., Feb. 27.—The annual Thayer county Sunday school convention will be held Friday in the Bethel Brethren church. The program begins at 9:30 in the morning and closes at 9 at night. Dinner will be served in the basement of the church. An attendance contest will be held, the Sunday school sending the largest delegation to the convention to be awarded a prize. Officers of the county association are: Del J. Tripp, president; Mrs. M. E. Volight, vice president; Mrs. Bessie McGrath, secretary.

Holder of Walking Record at Norfolk, Neb., Is Dead

Norfolk, Neb., Feb. 27.—Z. H. Bateman, the man who had the longest walking record of any Norfolk man, is dead. For nearly half a century, Mr. Bateman made his living by peddling bills from house to house. He knew the location of every vacant house in the city and was the author of many interesting local statistics. From receipts of bill peddling alone, this old man made enough money to buy his own home and to live comfortably in his old age.

Western Nebraska Towns Get Phones

Banquet Held at Thedford in Celebration of Completion of 60-Mile Line.

Thedford, Neb., Feb. 27.—Opening of the Mullen-Broken Bow long distance line recently completed by the Northwestern Bell Telephone company, which gave Mullen, Halsey, Thedford and Seneca telephone connections with the outside world; was celebrated here with a banquet, long-distance talks and motion pictures. Work on the project was started December 12, 1923, and was completed February 4.

The longest conversations over the new line were held by Orval Poph with his brother, William Poph, at Camp Vail, N. J., and by Mayor W. J. Lynch with Ferdon Shaw at Brimtree, Mass. O. B. Winter, editor of the Thomas County Herald, talked with E. E. Miller, editor of the Buffalo Voice at Buffalo, Wyo. Other conversations over the new line were held with Chicago, Omaha and Lincoln.

Ex-Senator Frank M. Currie of Broken Bow, who has devoted much of his time for several years toward getting long distance lines extended to these towns, spoke on "Telephone Pioneering." Other speakers were P. T. Lewellen, county commissioner; Mayor Lynch, Fred B. Butt, district commercial manager, and C. A. Phillips, district plant chief, both of Grand Island.

New copper wire, about 220 miles of it, was strung from Broken Bow to Mullen, and over 1,500 new poles were set along 60 miles of the new line. Conversation from any of the towns along the line with nearly any place in the United States can now be carried on because of a telephone repeater at Grand Island, which restores feeble voice currents to their original strength.

Bees Back on Job.

Newcastle, Neb., Feb. 27.—Even though it has been comparatively cold in this locality for the last two weeks, harbingers of spring appeared when a large number of bees gathered on the edges of a terrace along the sidewalk here. The sun, melting some of the snow, caused the water to seep through the leaves on the lawn and run down the edges of the terrace. It is believed that the bees sensed this process going on and came from their winter quarters to this place, from which they are able to extract honey to tide them over until buds and flowers appear later. The bees have been working here diligently for several days.

MOTHER!

"California Fig Syrup"

Dependable Laxative for Sick Baby or Child

W. H. HILL'S LIFE WORK

Colds cause more illness than any other human ailment. Realizing this 50 years ago, W. H. Hill determined to develop a quick-acting scientifically correct cold and la grippe remedy. Years of research brought success. Mr. Hill discovered a most remarkable formula. He backed it with energy, faith, integrity and a name that meant "satisfaction or money back."

Today more than 4,000,000 families—one-fifth of America's population—use and recommend Hill's Cascara Bromide Quinine.

The formula has never been changed in a quarter century. What Hill's has done for millions, it can do for you. Demand red box bearing Mr. Hill's portrait. All druggists, 30 cents.

Hurry, Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well, playful child again. Even if cross, feverish, bilious, constipated or full of cold, children love its pleasant taste.

Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup," which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." Refuse any imitation.

Firm and Constant Growth Is the Record of Wholesaling Business

OMAHA

This branch of Omaha's commerce ---just starting fifty years ago--- reached the tremendous total of $484,000,000 in 1923.

That's $1,300,000 daily. There are now 570 wholesale firms with headquarters in Omaha.

The number of such firms, and the volume of business they do, show two things: That Omaha is well equipped to handle the wholesale business of its vast territory, and that merchants of the territory find it to their interest to do business here.

The growth of this business has been a tremendous growth, but sure and steady, not spasmodic.

It has been a logical growth, because of Omaha's location in the center of the world's richest agricultural territory, which is growing every year.

It is a growth which will continue indefinitely, as the great agricultural district which Omaha serves, will continue to develop and increase in population.

The Omaha success and growth in wholesale business, which is such a general business, is undeniable proof of city growth, both present and future.
