

Taft Welcomes Dietz to Capital

Oman Visits President Coolidge—Will Arrange for Nebraskans at Convention.

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee. Washington, March 7.—Gould Dietz, candidate in the Second Nebraska district for delegate to the national republican convention at Cleveland, arrived in Washington today.

The first thing Dietz wanted to do after his arrival was to visit the supreme court and see William Howard Taft, supreme justice of that court. Dietz took an inconspicuous seat in the court room. While court was in session, the eye of the chief justice roamed over the room. Ten minutes later a court attaché delivered the following message to Dietz:

"Gould Dietz of Omaha, Neb.: 'How do you think we looked?' William H. Taft."

Dietz wrote the following reply: "Fine, don't bother about me."

On various occasions, Taft, when in Omaha, had been a guest of Dietz. Following his attendance at the supreme court, Dietz spent 15 minutes in talking with President Calvin Coolidge.

"Personally, I can't see anything but Calvin Coolidge," Dietz said after his conference with the president. "However, I will be guided by the wishes expressed in the primaries by the voters of my district. I voted for Henry Ford on the first ballot four years ago."

After his visit to the supreme court chamber and the president, Dietz called upon Senator R. B. Howell, national committeeman for the republican party in Nebraska. Senator Howell deputized Dietz to be chairman of the arrangements committee for the national convention, and before Dietz returns to Omaha, he will stop at Cleveland and make reservations for the Nebraska delegation at the Cleveland convention in June.

Corn Fed to Stock Brought $1.10 Bushel

O'Neill, Neb., March 7.—Here is why Holt county farmers and business men are not lamenting the hard times as loudly as those in other sections:

On October 15 of last year Herbert Jensen, a farmer residing a few miles northwest of O'Neill, purchased from John Carr, an O'Neill ranchman, 20 head of high grade Angus cattle. Their average weight was 1,200 pounds each and he paid $84 per head for them. After feeding them on his own corn for four and one-half months he sold them on Monday, March 3, lumping them off at $150 per head, or $66 more per head than he paid for them. Their average weight on date of sale was 1,500 pounds each.

With everything considered his records disclose that he realized a little more than $1.10 a bushel for the corn he fed them. John Murray, a neighbor, practically duplicated the transaction and a number of other neighbors realized similar profits. The cattle were sold to Henry Schlotcock of West Point and go direct to the Chicago and Omaha markets.

Membership Is First Plea of Commissioner

Clarke G. Powell, commissioner-elect of the Chamber of Commerce, made his first official appearance yesterday when he addressed the membership council at its regular meeting.

"The work of this committee is one of the most important functions of the Chamber of Commerce," Mr. Powell told the members of the council. "On it depends the future of the chamber. This council must 'sell' the chamber to the men and women of this community, who are willing to take part or support the activities of the chamber to make Omaha a better city."

"Often times the mistake is made of telling the prospective member what the chamber will do for him rather than to convince him of his duty to support the chamber in its work for the city. A chamber of commerce is the greatest factor to bring progress to a city."

Mr. Powell assured the membership council that as commissioner and in the weeks remaining until he takes active command, he will give this work his ardent and enthusiastic support.

A mileage of 2,200 miles was registered on the journey west which included side trips from the regular road. The route was over the D. L. D. and Santa Fe roads and the expense of overland travel for four persons was 1 and 1-4 cents a mile, each. The best roads traversed were in states where a gas tax is levied.

How to build up your Weight

TO be under weight often proves loss fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1875, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.
