Lincoln, March S -- Two Omaha eams met for the 1924 basicet ball title here Saturday night. Omaha Central moved into the final by defeating Lincoln, 16 to 10, in the last game on the class A program Friday night. Creighton Prep defeated Tech, 14 to 2.

In the Central-Lincoln clash Robertson started the scoring in the first minute of play, with a long heave from the sidelines. The play was the fastest seen on the Coliseum court in the tourney. Lincoln's shots were falling short, but both teams were breaking well. Browne knotted the ount two all after five minutes of "Jug's" brilliant under basket shot seemed to put the Purple and White crew up in the air.

Should "Bud" leave, local amateur ball will lose one of its ardent boosters, but should the ambitious manager of the clothing nine be allowed to re-main in town, the Barkers will, no doubt, be a dangerous contender for first honors in the senior division.

This season will be "Bud's" third year as manager of the Barker team and during this time he has succeeded in keeping his team near the top. In 1922 the Barkers were the city class C champs and last season were beaten out of the pennant in the Gate City league by the Eatmore Candy Kids after a hard battle.
