

A DOWNING STREET MOTHER AND DAUGHTER. Mrs. M. Herbert and her mother, Mrs. John Clynes, wife of the Lord of the Privy Seal and deputy leader in the House of Commons in the Labor Cabinet of Britain's new Premier, Ramsay Macdonald.
Ray Wrightson.

LINCOLN'S SECRETARY as he is to-day. William O. Stoddard, eighty-nine years old, pictured at his home in Madison, N. J., on February 12. Mr. Stoddard was secretary to the Great Emancipator from 1860 to 1864. Despite his advancing years he still takes an active interest in present-day politics.
Wide World.

CANINE WINNERS at the annual show of the Westminster Kennel Club. Left oval—Barberry Hill Bootlegger, a Sealyham terrier, owned by Bayard Warren, of Pride's Crossing, Mass., which was declared the champion dog of the entire show. Right oval—Li Ping Tow, a chow, owned by Greenacre Kennels, of Fairfield, Conn., the best chow in the show. Above—Louis J. Muir's Russian wolfhounds.
Levick.

A GOTHAM BRIDE who is honeymooning at Palm Beach. Mrs. Lawrence M. Lloyd, who before her recent marriage was Miss Helene Simon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Simon, of 375 Park Avenue, N. Y. pictured just after a dip in the Florida surf.
Wide World.

Left—A SKI-SHOOTER. A feature of the Olympic games winter sports at Chamonia, France, was a combined ski race and shooting contest by soldiers of various countries.
Wide World.

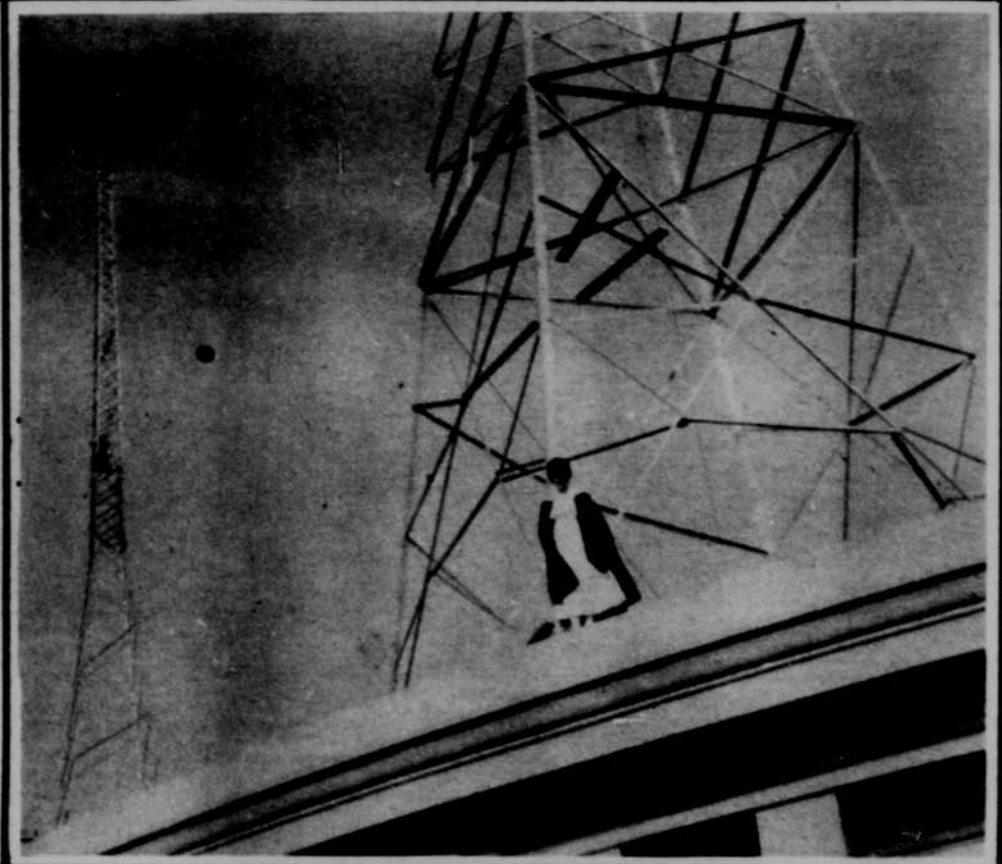

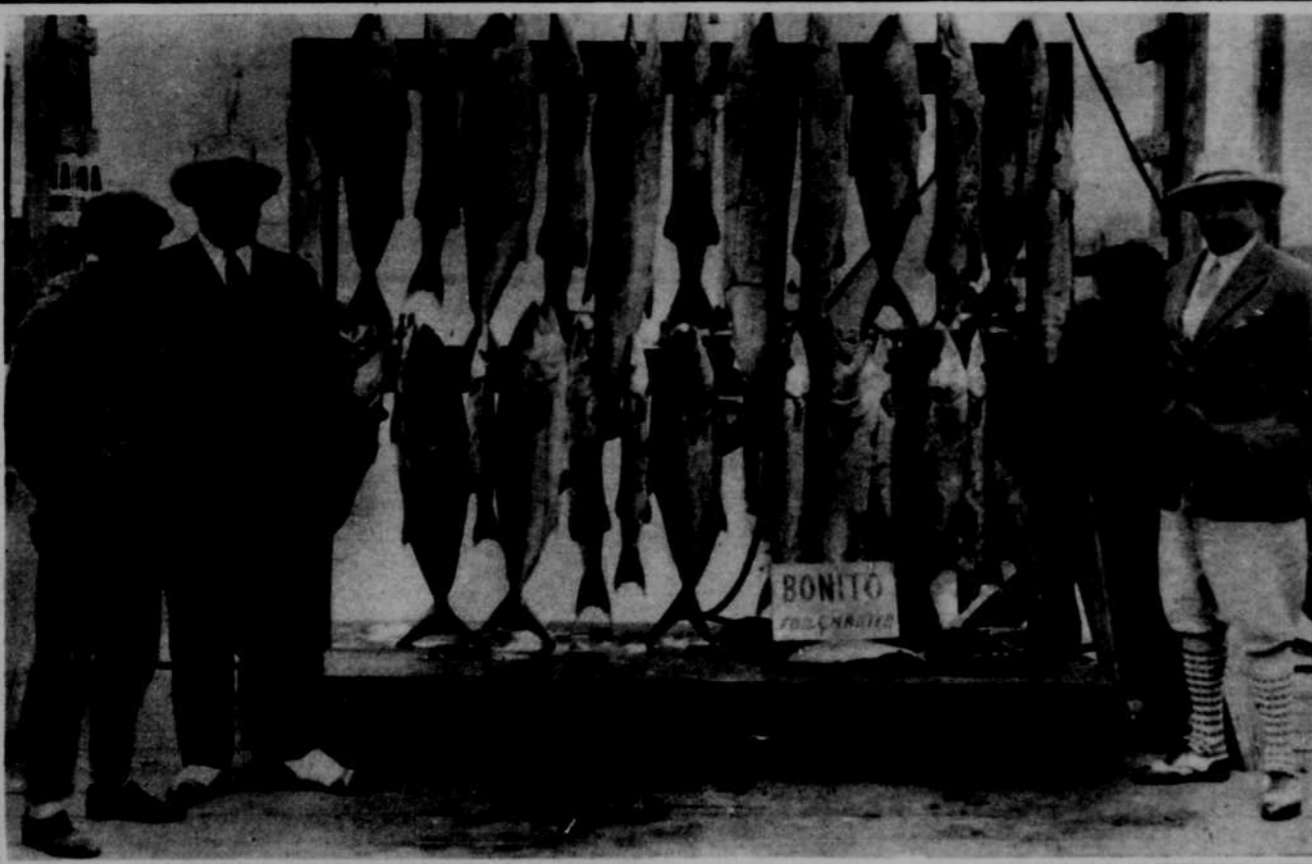

Right—MASTER JOHN DREXEL JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel, of 30 East Sixtieth Street, was one of the many children of socially prominent parents to frolic in Central Park after the recent snowfall. N. Y. A. E. Brown.

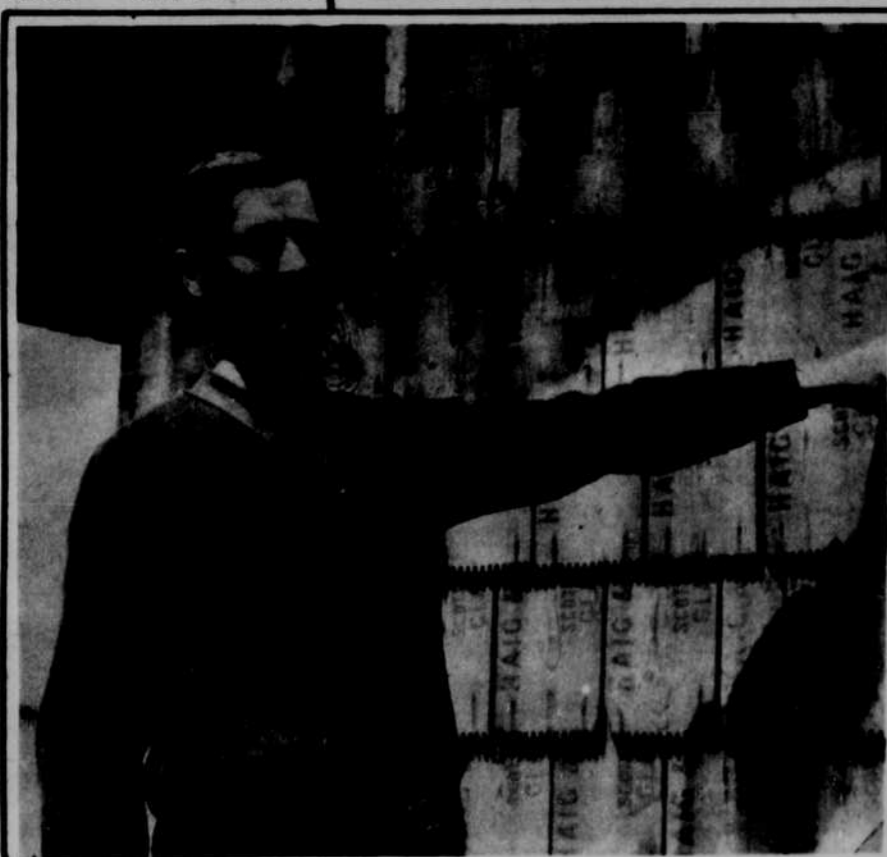

A REG'LAR FELLER. An automobile accident deprived Jimmy Reedy of one of his legs, but the cheerful youngster didn't let a little thing like that interfere with his enjoying the sledding on the hills of Central Park following New York City's first good snowfall of the season.
Underwood.

Right—NEW YORK IKE WALTONS. William H. Edwards ("Big Bill"), left, and Bernard F. Gimbel pictured with their haul after a three days' fishing cruise among the Florida keys. In the collection of more than two dozen finny beauties are two sailfish, nine amberjacks and several large groupers and barracudas. The large fifty-eight-pound amberjack was caught by New York's former Income Tax Collector.
Kadel & Herbert.

Left—HAS HER OWN BROADCASTING STATION. Aimee Semple MacPherson, woman evangelist of Los Angeles, standing on the roof of her California temple beside the great towers of the powerful radio broadcasting station from which she sends out into the air her sermons and music from her choir.
P. & A.

Left—SCOTCH SHINGLES. Hank Goldsell, of Tia Juana, Mexico, just across the border from San Diego, has shingled his dwelling with the ends of wooden whiskey cases.
P. & A.

Right—UNCLE SAM'S NEW BOMBER, said to be the most destructive monster of the air yet developed, pictured at McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio, ready for a series of exhaustive tests. In addition to its bombing equipment (the largest bombs ever carried aloft) the huge engine of death carries an armament of five machine guns. Note the size of the craft compared with the two men standing beneath the forward cockpit.
Kadel & Herbert.

