Add Nutritionist to Visiting Nurses

A nutritionist will be added to the staff of the Visiting Nurses' association, it was decided by the board of directors at a meeting held March 11 in the association rooms at the city hall.

Giving advice to mothers about the buying and preparation of food, and the management of homes and budgets, will be one of the principal duties of this specialist. The nutritionist will also devote particular attention to children of preschool age, from 2 to 5 years, which is often known as the "No Man's Land" of childhood. Preschool clinics will be organized and conducted for their benefit.

Miss Florence McCabe, superintendent of the Visiting Nurses' association, "generalization plan" being adopted by similar associations in other cities. For some years, the Omaha association has been organized by specialties. Certain nurses confine their attention to tuberculosis and others care for other diseases. It follows that several nurses often visit a single family. By the new plan, one nurse cares for all the ailments in any given family.

Reports show that 4,700 calls were made by visiting nurses last month; and 2,211 patients were treated, of whom only 9 died.

Back to Bonnet and Shawl

By ELEANOR GUNN.

It is not such a far cry from the days of the bonnet and shawl! What more or less than a bonnet is the cloche? As for the shawl, we have no new name for it, even though the shawl is distinctly "in" this season.

Not because of the Spanish background which is one of Havana's most insidious charms, are shawls worn there, but because they are chic. A few years ago the only glimpse one had of the manton in Havana was at carnival time, and to a limited degree, in the shops. But now, women of fashion wear them for evening, and nothing more decorative can be imagined.

The first thing an ambitious American tourist does is to go forth in search of a manton. There are plenty to be had, but at prices which are prohibitive except to the extravagant. It is by the fringe one judges these shawls; the embroidery is only secondary. They are quite heavy, one shawl frequently weighing as much as a fur coat. While huge flowers are the most striking embroidery motifs, there are women who do not consider them as good taste as the smaller designs, and still others who prefer two tones instead of the black and white combinations, which are also popular.

As everyone knows, many so-called Spanish shawls are embroidered in China and Manila. So of course the Chinese influence is easily detected in some embroideries. In fact, some are quite pronounced, as in the wrap sketched, which has for inspiration, the fringed shawl.

The square shawl of crepe sans embroidery, with handsome self-toned fringe, is also affected by smart women who are intrigued more by the graceful silhouettes possible rather than by its other charms. One may have a collection of such shawls to harmonize with many evening gowns for the price of one hand-decorated shawl of Russian persuasion is less popular in southern resorts than the embroidered or plain types. There are also the Roman silk scarfs, shawl-like in proportions.

So far, the shawl dress has been encountered only once or twice, and always in plain colors.

Character Tests Show by Wayne Educator

Wayne, Neb., March 12.—"Character tests" were described by President Conn of Wayne State Teachers' college in recent addresses to faculty and students on "Significant Tendencies in Education," which he based especially on indications at the National Educational association conference in Chicago.

These character of temperament tests aim to measure the qualities of a student's disposition. They serve as additions and corrections to the intelligence tests already in use in the schools, and often give widely different results.

These newer tests are based on the supposition that patience, perseverance and kindness may be socially as valuable as speed in solving a mathematics problem; that it may be as important for society to produce a St. Francis as a Napoleon or a Lloyd George.

Form Parent Teacher Association at Beal

About 100 mothers of children at Beal school met Tuesday to organize a Parent-Teacher association. Mrs. S. T. Jonas was elected president; Miss Helen Longsdorf, vice president; Mrs. G. C. Farber, second vice president; Mrs. C. W. White, secretary, and Mrs. J. J. Grabow, treasurer.

This new organization is the 10th Parent-Teacher organization to be formed in Omaha schools. Only one of the 10, the Dundee association, is affiliated with the state and national Parent-Teacher associations.

They Are Wearing

The scarf collar as it appears on fur trimmed cloth coats, is generally entirely of cloth, with fur forming only a decoration on the ends. One coat developed in black suede cloth, showed a scarf collar of the cloth. The ends thrown back over the shoulders, reach almost to the edge of the coat, and are finished with deep plaques of muskrat fur.

A touch of red is a noteworthy costume detail of smartly dressed women. A black crepe de chine frock has pipings of red on the bodice and running down the skirt. A black velvet frock, worn at luncheon at the Ritz, had its plainness relieved by fine cuffs of lingerie and lace, set off by a single band of red ribbon at the wrist.

Bronchitis Best Treated With Vapors

Direct Treatment with Vaporizing Salve Immediately Reaches Congested Air Passages.

If a cold has been neglected and has gone down into the chest, producing acute bronchitis, thoroughly redden the skin over throat and chest with hot, wet towels to open the pores. Then massage briskly with Vicks for five minutes, spread on thickly and cover with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths.

For hours after Vicks is applied the vapors of Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Juniper Tar, etc., are inhaled directly into the infected air passages. At the same time Vicks is absorbed thru and stimulates the skin like a poultice or plaster.

Being externally applied, Vicks is especially good for children and is used by millions of mothers to prevent or relieve cold troubles.
