The best grades of prairie are in good demand, and the market is strong, prices on top grades being somewhat higher. Low grades, however, continue slow sale, with the market weak. In some quarters quite a little Kansas prairie and alfalfa hay has been received, on the local market, during the past week or 10 days.

Son on Stand Against Father

Man, 69, Accused by Granddaughter; Letters of Remorse Read.

James A. Sumner, 69, white-haired, sat in District Judge Fitzgerald's court before a jury Thursday morning, charged with a crime against his granddaughter, Mary Sumner, 4, 2455 South Fifth street.

Witnesses against him were Mr. and Mrs. James Sumner, his son and daughter-in-law. The little girl, sitting in her mother's lap on the witness stand, also testified.

Two letters, signed by the aged man, were read to the jury by Deputy County Attorney Gross. Both were dated January 26, 1924. One read as follows:

"Dear Wife: I am telling you goodby. It would have been better for me if I had never been born. Please have them put me in a plain box and stick me off in some corner and don't let any of the children look upon my dead face, and please tell all the children never to mention my name.

"See what sin has done for me. I hope it will be a lesson to you all. I know full well that I will get my just dues for transgressing God's laws."

The other letter also breathes remorse for a sinful life. It reads in part:

"James: I am not here for long. I have a dreadful pain in my leg and my conscience hurts me even worse. It seems that a jinx has followed me all my life. I can't stand this and just have to let God take me and mete out justice. I feel that I am lost like many other poor souls, only worse. I have suffered the pangs of remorse these many years.

"I know God will surely give it to me hard and soon. I haven't long to stay here."

A statement, alleged to have been made by Sumner, sr., to Mr. Gross, was read to the jury over the protest of Public Defender John N. Baldwin.

Every one has an ideal—an ideal home that he is sure is just what he desires. The signs of progress are the houses built after individual ideas which are in themselves concrete evidence of the progress of their owners. Consult a good builder, let him modify or bring out your ideas and put them in concrete form. That is the best way, and sometimes cheaper, too.
