Charges Pile Up on Daugherty

Unprosecuted Violations of Various Laws Alleged by Witnesses Before Senate Committee.

Frameup, Says Attorney

Washington, March 15.—New and surprising allegations of deals and frameups of unprosecuted violations of the law and of money payments for protection, were tumbled across the committee table in the senate's whirlwind investigation of Attorney General Daugherty and the Department of Justice.

Gun running, bootlegging and unlawful circulation of prizefight films were the subjects around which the testimony centered throughout a four-hour committee session scarcely less colorful than those which have preceded it.

From his office at the other end of Washington, Daugherty again struck back tonight at his accusers. He reserved until a later time, however, the detailed statement he is preparing in refutation of insinuations made against him on the witness stand, and contented himself with a brief announcement that in due time he would "advise the public of the influences behind these malicious and scandalous attacks and the character of the tools that are being used in this cowardly manner by my adversaries."

Film Deals Up Again.
How the Dempsey-Carpenter prize fight films were exhibited with profits of $125,000 in 22 to 25 states with an "understanding" against the department of justice interference despite the law was related on the witness stand today by Fred C. Quimby, New York producer of the films. In many particulars his story followed the previous testimony of Gaston B. Means and Miss Roxie Stinson, divorced wife of Jesse Smith, dead friend of Daugherty. Both of these witnesses had testified that Smith was interested financially in the film deal.

Other witnesses today made charges of derelictions in prosecuting Mexican gun running, bootleggers and Texas oil stock promoters. Friends of former Secretary Fall and prominent Texas republicans were named in this connection and Federal District Attorneys Henry Zweifel and John D. Hartman were charged with delay and failures of prosecution. One witness said he "believed" Zweifel was involved in a "black mail" scheme against oil stock promoters.

Direct Evidence Lacking.
Attorney General Daugherty was not directly implicated by any of today's witnesses, but the testimony often trailed to the door of his office, through his hand, Jesse Smith and subordinate officials.

While the committee was in session, Chairman Adams of the republican national committee issued a statement that "nothing discreditable" to Mr. Daugherty had yet been developed, but republican leaders in the senate were known to be studying the developments carefully with a view to possible renewal of pressure upon the administration for action.

Prince of Wales Is Spilled Again

London, March 15.—The prince of Wales fell off his horse again today while participating in the army steeplechase. The prince's face was smeared with blood when he was picked up. His nose and mouth were severely cut and bruised. At first he was persuaded by his friends and used an automobile ambulance. Prince Henry, Wales' brother, also had a spill, but escaped injury.

We Have With Us Today

Orlando Martin, Plainfield, Vt., speaker of the Vermont house of representatives.
Mr. Martin, who, in addition to being politically active in his home state, is a farmer of means and an officer of the National guard, is a combined business and pleasure trip to the midwest.
He is a republican and is personally well acquainted with President Calvin Coolidge, another Vermont native son. He knew President Coolidge's father when the elder Coolidge was a member of the Vermont state senate.
Mr. Martin himself served one term in the senate, and two in the lower house of the legislature, previous to his present term. He was also state commissioner of agriculture for four years.
He has been in Nebraska before, but declares that he likes the state better every time he sees it.
He is interested in good roads and believes that, while the gravelled roads of Vermont are a good step forward, they will not bear up under continued heavy traffic.

Round-World Plan Ready

Only finishing touches remain to be put on four army planes which will fly to encircle the globe. This one at Santa Monica is almost ready.

Brandeis Store Will Rebuild Show Windows

Entire Sixteenth Street Front to Be Changed, With Center Entrance; to Cost $250,000.

An improvement program for Brandeis store will give this mercantile establishment show windows that will be comparable with any store in this country, according to announcement by George Brandeis.

E. C. Wheeler of Chicago, recognized as an expert in store architecture, was in Omaha yesterday, going over the improvements and changes with the executives of the Brandeis company.

The estimated cost of the improvements is $250,000. Mr. Brandeis explained yesterday that the changes to be made in the Sixteenth street show windows and in the main floor, are in keeping with the policy of the store, which is to progress every year.

Entire New Front.
The first change will be the rebuilding of the entire Sixteenth street front, giving the effect of about twice as much window space as the store now has on this street," Mr. Brandeis said.

Improvements contemplated on the main floor will facilitate display of merchandise in accordance with the most modern ideas in store building.

Work will be started within a few months. The store now has 71 feet of show window space on the Sixteenth street side. The new plans will give 145 feet of window space on the Sixteenth street side.

Entrance in Center.
The two present entrances on Sixteenth street will be replaced, with elaborate show windows and a large entrance will be opened at the center of the Sixteenth street side of the store.

One of the important changes to be made is the placing of fixtures and aisles in a north and south direction.

U. S. Oil Lease Counsel Arrive in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, Cal., March 15.—Owen J. Roberts and former Senator Alton C. Pomeroy of Ohio, the special counsel appointed by President Coolidge to seek annulment of the Elk Hills and Teapot Dome oil leases, arrived here today from Cheyenne, where they would go to court Monday to file the suit to cancel Elk Hills lease.

First, however, he said, he would go into conference tonight with Attorney Burke and the clerk of the United States district court, in which the suit will be filed.

Bandits Get $100,000 in Diamonds

Pedestrians Bewildered With Rapidity of Daylight Robbery of Texas Jewelry Store.

Thugs Escape in Traffic

Fort Worth, Tex., March 15.—As hundreds of bewildered pedestrians looked on, a band of automobile bandits late this afternoon halted their car on a downtown street directly outside the Joel H. Hoffmann jewelry store, seized a case containing approximately $100,000 in jewels and escaped.

The consignment of gems principally diamonds, was the property of Lokitz, Epstein & Rothberg, Madison Ave., New York. Louis M. Rothenberg was escorting the shipment.

Around-World Fliers Get Ready

Air Carnival to Be Held at Santa Monica Sunday—Hop-Off Monday.

Clover Field, Santa Monica, Cal., March 15.—Clover field was abuzz with airplanes today as final preparations were made for the air carnival to be held here tomorrow in connection with the army's around the world flight, which will start Monday.

A third of the approximately 100 planes expected to participate in the carnival were on hand this morning with the others slated to appear during the day and early tomorrow.

In addition to an exhibition of the flight by the world cruiser planes, other events on the carnival program include refueling in midair, sky writing and aerial smoke screen exhibitions.

Coolidge Permits Income Tax Return Inspection

Washington, March 15.—President Coolidge has issued an executive order directing the bureau of internal revenue to permit inspection of income and profits tax returns by congressional committees upon passage of a resolution by either house of congress.

Bank at Afton, Ia., Closes Its Doors

Creston, Ia., March 15.—The Afton State Savings Bank of Afton, 10 miles east of here, failed to open its doors this morning. The only explanation given was a notice posted on the door stating that it was closed on the board of directors.
