New York, March 15.—The raw sugar market was quiet and unchanged today at 7.03c for Cubas, duty paid. No sales were reported.

Fallure of demand to broaden at the recent decline discouraged holders of raw futures and led to renewed selling pressure. Stop loss orders were uncovered on the break which carried prices 10 to 11 points below the previous close. Covering checked the decline, but final prices were 5 to 10 points net lower. March sclosed 5.25c; May, 5.35c; July, 5.35c; September, 5.35c.

The demand for refined sugar was light and prices unchanged at 8.60@8.90c for fine granulated.

Refined futures were nominal.

Sugar futures closed barely steady; approximate sales, 5.000 tons.

May, 5.32c; July, 5.38c; September, 5.35c; December, 4.85c.

Chicago Butter.

Chicago, March 15.—The buying interest of today's butter market did not sustain yesterday's advance on the top scores and at today's prices the market barely held steady. Trading was quiet and a small amount of business was reported on all medium grades. Very little business was transacted on centralized cars, although buyers found it easier to buy at prices listed today than prices listed yesterday.
